HOLE - IN - THE - ROCK, Utah (AP)—The peace that prevails over the southern Utah desert was shattered Monday when a truck carrying 46 explorers overturned, killing nine Boy Scouts, two of their leaders and a woman reporter who was covering the venture.

The list of hospitalized reached 15, with at least two critical, as details of the tragedy slowly came from the scene of the accident in the remote desert area between Escalante and Hole-in-the-Rock on the Colorado River.

The group was from the Ogden-Salt Lake City-Provo area about 200 miles north. Most were Boy Scouts, but Floyd Loveridge, chief executive of the scouts in Provo, said the trip was under the auspices of the South Cottonwood Stake of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the Provo area.

The adventurous expedition was led by a group of teachers and college professors who had led many trips into Utah's red desert areas.

One of the dead was H. Darrell Taylor, 45, a professor of languages at Brigham Young University in Provo and scout leader.

Another of the leaders, Merlin J. Shaw, 51, of Provo, an assistant professor at Brigham Young and father of six, was killed. Monday was his 26th wedding anniversary.

Dorothy Hansen, 24, a vacationing reporter for Salt Lake City's Deseret News, was along for the ride and planned to write a feature article.

Utah highway patrolman Burt Giles said the truck was grinding up a steep grade on a dirt road that had been battered by the fierce desert winds and flash floods when the engine failed.

The brakes wouldn't hold and the 2½-ton cattle truck plummeted backwards down the incline. It finally hurtled off the edge of road into a deeply eroded gully and flipped over, trapping most of the passengers huddled in the back and crushing some of them. Some were thrown clear.

Many of the injured were treated at the scene when police and doctors arrived from Panguitch which is about 80 miles northwest. Private cars carried the more seriously hurt and dead to the Panguitch hospital.

That facility could accommodate only about 10 of the casualties and the rest had to be distributed to hospitals in towns up to 100 miles away from the accident.

Hole-in-the-Rock, which is actually a crevice in the towering Glen Canyon walls along the Colorado River, is a landmark in Utah history. It was here the Mormon missionaries were able to cross the river and settle the uncolonized southeastern section.

Nearby, the Escalante River, the last major river discovered in the continental United States, cuts through the dull red dust and sand. It was found by a group from the second John Wesley Powell expedition down the Colorado River in 1871-72.

School Staffs At Wellsville Get Pay Plan

Personnel Not On Faculty Also To Be Given Increments

A salary schedule establishing a maximum and minimum wage for non-teaching personnel was adopted by the Wellsville Board of Education Monday night.

The first schedule ever established, it also provides for increments for tenure of duty, another inovation. The top salary in each case is obtained from the increments.

In the past the board hired each of these employes on an individual basis. The new schedule will go into effect Sept. 1.

Non-teaching personnel was given a wage increase earlier this year.

The schedule for custodians, listing the starting salary and top salary, follows:

McKinley, $2,350 to $2,450, with two increments of $50 each; Fairview, $2,600 to $2,700, with two increments of $50 each; MacDonald, $3,850 to $4,050, with two $100 increments; Garfield, $3,950 to $4,150, with two $100 increments; Beacom Memorial gym, $3,200 to $3,350, with two $75 increments; Nicholson Stadium, $3,400 to $3,600, with two $100 increments; high school (daytime male), $4,150 to $4,350, with two $100 increments; high school (night females working 44 hours) $2,875 to $2,975, with two $50 increments, and high school (night female working 34 hours), $2,200 to $2,300, with two $50 increments.

All custodians will be paid $1.25 an hour for extra duty.

The MacDonald secretary, working 10 months, will receive $2,000 to start, with a top salary of $2,250 and five $50 increments. The high school secretary salary will be $2,850 to start, with a top of $3,350 and five $100 increments. The superintendent's secretary will be $3,350 to $3,850 with five $100 increments. Meeting's Set On Cutback In Street Crews

A financial crisis that may force a cutback in the 26-man street department crew by July 1 is scheduled for discussion at a meeting between administration spokesmen and unionized city employes Friday night at 7:30 in the Council chamber at City Hall.

Safety - Service Director Robert Owen and Street Supt. W. M. Laughlin are scheduled to confer with the workers, members of Local 677, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes.

Owens explained today the crisis in street department funds arose primarily because it's the first year in recent history in which the department's budget has not been bolstered by money transferred from city income tax receipts. Without the income tax money, the department must operate solely on the funds the city receives as a share of state gasoline tax and auto license collections, the director pointed out.

If the appropriation for the entire year were pro rated equally over the 12 months, the department's expenditures would be $12,416 ahead of normal for the first five months of 1963, Owen said. The fund was eaten up rapidly during the winter months by additional expenditures for snow removal, he said.

In the past, Council sometimes has provided special funds to aid in the snow - removal job so that the department's usual activities will not be curtailed later in the year, the director explained. But no special fund was provided for this year, he explained. On two recent occasions, the director asked Council to bolster the street department fund with some of the income tax receipts, but no action was taken.

However, if there is a cutback in the crew or a curtailment of service, the action probably will not be taken before July 1. Owen indicated lay - offs are not necessarily the only answer, as a reduction in the overall man hours of the department could be ac-

Board Fills 3 Of Midland's Faculty Posts

3 Teachers Resign; Raises For 2 Sports Coaches Rejected

The Midland Board of Education Monday night hired three new teachers for next term, accepted the resignations of three, refused salary increases sought by coaches and ordered a start of planning for a centralized elementary school system under Midland Borough's Comprehensive Plan adopted in 1960.

Hired were Miss Carol Martin ot teach English and social studies, at a salary of $4,200 per year; Phillip Lalaeff, general science, $4,200, and Gerald L. Gaido, English and social studies, $5,200.

Resignations were those of Mrs. Lalaeff is from Aliquippa and Gaido from New Brighton.

Velma Ketterer, a fourth grade teacher; Joseph Chvesta, a high school teacher, and Howard E. Thorn, a teacher for 14 years.

On recommendation of the finance committee, the board denied salary increases asked by Charles Polce, head football coach, from $1,200 to $1,500 a year, and Paul Farnan, backfield coach from $500 to $800. The salary of baseball coach Paul Farnan, for the 1962-63 term, was set at $500.

Clyde Scott, a high school teacher who has reached 65, is to retire in accordance with the school policy. On recommendation of Supt. Ralph H. Jewell, the board voted to purchase memberships in the Beaver County Retired Public School Employes Association for Scott and five other retired teachers at a cost of $35.

Nesbit Descutner was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Louis Glumac on the Carnegie Library Board, Mrs. Robert Needs was returned as a member for a 5-year term.

James Morrison, board president, said Midland is now ready for Phase 3 of the comprehensive plan, which calls for a centralized elementary system.

A resolution was adopted for the board and Borough Council to join in a study of possible sites for a central school. Morrison appointed a committee of board members, Edward Cilli, Leslie Roach, John Uccellini and himself, to consult with Council, with Cilli serving as chairman.

The board adopted the 1963-64 school budget of $724,444, with no increase in millage.

The budget was accepted tentetively in May, providing for an increase of $9,651.

The board accepted the recommendation of the education committee for the 1963-64 high school schedule and turned over to the proper committee for study, a change in the policy on student absences.

The school directors were authorized to attend workshops and conferences at Indiana State Teachers College in August, and will receive $12 per day for expenses and 8 cents per mile. Jewell and William Walters, high

Harriman Named U.S. Negotiator

To Represent U.S. At Nuclear Test Parley In Moscow

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy today named Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman as chief U.S. negotiator in upcoming talks with the Soviet Union and Great Britain on the nuclear testing stalemate.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy is expected to select his chief negotiator for the Moscow nuclear test ban talks by the end of this week.

Informants who reported this today said Kennedy is considering men both inside and outside the government.

One name mentioned often in advance speculation is that of John J. McCloy, a former U.S. high commissioner for Germany. He is a New York banker who has had considerable experience both in disarmament talks and in dealing with the Russians.

The U.S. negotiating team and a companion British group are slated to meet with Soviet representatives in mid-July for another try at ending the long deadlock over a pact to outlaw atomic testing.

Washington authorities attached importance to Soviet Premier Khrushchev's agreement to the meeting after six months of Russian disinterest in test ban talks at the 17-nation general disarmament conference in Geneva.

They tempered this with considerable caution.

Boy Killed, Damages High As Storms Rip Ohio Areas

By The Associated Press

A line of violent thunderstorms —whipped by powerful surface winds—ripped across Ohio, mainly in the western half of the state and spread destruction to many cities.

The storms started late Monday afternoon in the northwest sector, then struck at night in the central and southern sections.

One death was reported due to the storms. A 11-year-old boy was struck and killed by a falling tree limb Monday night when a storm hit the Yellow Springs area. The youth, Michael Jones, was hit while walking through a schoolyard on his way home from a Boy Scout meeting. There were several minor injuries in the state.

Most of the damage came from winds, which ranged up to 83 miles an hour in Cincinnati. Tree limbs were strewn about many sections, roofs were blown off and power was disrupted.

Two telephone company employes were injured in Fremont when a tree limb crushed the cab of their truck. A man was injured in Lorain when winds smashed a storm door at his home. At Middletown, a man and his two small sons were hurt when a tree collapsed on their car.

The severe weather came after unseasonably warm weather as temperatures climbed above the 90-degree mark. Columbus was the hottest spot, with a reading of 95 degrees in early afternoon.

But the storms sent the temperatures into a sharp decline and cool weather was on tap for today.

Six thousand homes were without lights in the greater Cleveland area for a time, and crews worked to repair power lines which blacked out 1,500 homes in Toledo. The same situation prevailed, although on a smaller scale, in many cities in the Buckeye state.

A bowling alley under construction in Port Clinton was leveled by the fierce winds. The corner of a hangar at the airport there was blown off and bricks rained down on several cars. A plane at the airport tipped over on one wing.

At Milford, in Clermont County, officials said a tent housing a revival meeting was blown down. There were 230 persons inside, but no injuries were reported.

The roof of a merry-go-round at an amusement park in the Cincinnati suburb of Reading was blown away and an arcade lost a portion of its roof.

Commands Governor 'To Desist'

Proclamation Is Issued Prior To Enrollment Bid

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy commanded Alabama's governor today to "cease and desist" from any illegal obstructions of justice or "conspiracies or domestic violence" in the Alabama racial crisis.

Kennedy did so by a presidential proclamation shortly before two Negroes were scheduled to seek entry to the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa in the face of a pledge by Gov. George C. Wallace to block the doorway in person.

Kennedy said he was acting under authority of the Constitution and laws of the United States.

Even as the proclamation was issued here at noon, EDT, Wallace had taken up a stand at the doorway to the university.

Before retiring Monday night, he told newsmen he would stand in the doorway today to prevent Vivian Malone and James Hood from registering.

When asked if he would physically stand in the doorway, Wallace replied: "How else can you stand there?"

Wallace rebuffed a personal appeal from President Kennedy, who wired the governor: "I urgently ask you to consider the consequences to your state and its fine university if you persist in setting an example of defiant conduct and urge you instead to leave these matters in the courts of law where they belong."

Palestine, Negley, Salem Feel Fury; 'Heat Wave' Ended

Severe storms slashed through parts of the Tri-State District Monday night but East Liverpool was spared damage despite a nervous several hours sweating out an Ohio Weather Bureau alert.

The district had been warned of possible "severe storms" from 3 to 10 last night and back - county communities had damage, and Steubenville was hard hit, while all the city got was some high

Rail Unions' Accord Stalls Strike Threat

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rail operating unions agreed today to a five-day extension of the deadline in the railroad work rules dispute and delayed the threat of a nationwide strike until next week.

The railroads had agreed Monday night to the extension which Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz requested when it became apparent no settlement could be reached by the first deadline —midnight Wednesday night.

Actually, the agreement by the railroads made a strike unlikely, because they must take the initiative, by putting the disputed work rules into effect, before the five operating unions can react with a strike.

After consultations Monday night and a meeting early this morning, the unions sent the following telegram to Wirtz:

"Please be advised the labor organizations will cooperate."

Spelling Champ Has Busy Time

By D. DEAN ROACH

WASHINGTON, D.C. (Special) —"Wow!" That's the way Gary Barringer, 14-year-old East Liverpool youth, The Canton Repository's spelling champion, summed up his first day in the nation's capitol.

He retired Monday night to his room in the Mayflower Hotel with tired feet, a day of new experiences and 69 new teen - age friends.

Gary, a student at Westgate Junior High School, is in Washington to compete in the national spelling bee, scheduled to get under way Wednesday morning.

His first glimpse of this historical city was the dome of the Capitol Building as he arrived shortly after 7 a. m. Monday aboard a Baltimore and Ohio train.

Gary, along with the other 69 bee contestants, newspaper escorts and friends and relatives, experienced the hottest June in Washington since 1925. The temperature Monday was 96 degrees, bettering the 1925 reading of 94 degrees.

A time-temperature clock outside the hotel at 3 p. m. Monday read 105 degrees.

One place Gary probably will visit again before he leaves Washington is the Smithsonian Institution. We had only a half hour to spend in the mammouth buildings Monday afternoon and he

Trial For Miss Smith Due To Open Monday

Miss Roberta C. Smith of Fairmont St., former chief clerk in the city water department office, is scheduled to go on trial Monday morning before Common Pleas Court Judge Raymond S. Buzzard at Lisbon on a charge of larceny in connection with an alleged $23,841 shortage in the department in 1959-61.

Charged with embezzlement in connection with the same case, Miss Smith was tried last December. The case ended in a hung jury. The Grand Jury then returned an indictment charging larceny.

Miss Smith pleaded not guilty at arraignment March 5 on the larceny charge. The embezzlement charge still is pending, awaiting retrial. She is free on $1,500 bond in each case.

ED FRANKOVITCH

Edward Frankovitch, chief deputy of the Hancock County sheriff's office, was named today as Weirton's new police chief by mayor - elect Frank A. Rybka.

Rybka, who unseated incumbent Mayor David Frew in last Tuesday's municipal election in Weirton, offered the police chief's post to Frankovitch and he accepted, terming the appointment "a complete surprise."

Frankovitch, 6 - foot - 6, 220 pounds, has been a familiar figure in the Hancock County sheriff's office for six years and has been one of its top investigators.

A native of Weirton, he was graduated from Weir High School in 1952 and was later employed by Weirton Steel Co.

Frankovitch was named a deputy sheriff in 1956 by former county Sheriff Clayton H. Hobbs, and

Weird Twist Of Timing

Ohio Senate Almost OKs Redistricting Measure

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Because of Republican illnesses and several GOP defections, the Ohio Senate almost passed a congressional redistricting bill for the state Monday night.

It was a weird twist of timing and circumstance that permitted the Democrats to tack a full-scale redistricting bill onto an innocuous little measure to correct the border of the First Congressional District in Hamilton County through a cemetery.

It was only after an amused Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem turned to Senate Republicans and gave them the classic thumbs-down signal that the GOP killed its own bill 15-14.

In the final tally, the bill's sponsor, Sen. Fred L. Hoffman, R-Hamilton, voted against his own bill. Two Republicans—Sens. Charles Jones, R-Butler, and Robin Turner, R-Seneca—voted for it as they had for the amendment. Sen. James Grose, R - Trumbull, who voted for the amendment, voted against the bill. All 12 Democrats present voted for both the amendment and the bill.

Monday night's wild and woolly development could not have happened had it not been that Senate Republicans have three ailing members—Sens. Gordon Renner of Cincinnati, Tennyson Guyer of Findlay and Charles Whalen Jr. of Dayton.

The latter collapsed when he arrived at the statehouse Monday. Associates said it apparently was a combination of an anti - hay fever shot and the intense heat. He has been released by a Columbus hospital and probably will be back on duty today.

Six thousand homes were without lights in the greater Cleveland area for a time, and crews worked to repair power lines which blacked out 1,500 homes in Toledo. The same situation prevailed, although on a smaller scale, in many cities in the Buckeye state.

A bowling alley under construction in Port Clinton was leveled by the fierce winds. The corner of a hangar at the airport there was blown off and bricks rained down on several cars. A plane at the airport tipped over on one wing.

At Milford, in Clermont County, officials said a tent housing a revival meeting was blown down. There were 230 persons inside, but no injuries were reported.

The roof of a merry-go-round at an amusement park in the Cincinnati suburb of Reading was blown away and an arcade lost a portion of its roof.

Storms Lash County Area; City's Spared

Palestine, Negley, Salem Feel Fury; 'Heat Wave' Ended

Severe storms slashed through parts of the Tri-State District Monday night but East Liverpool was spared damage despite a nervous several hours sweating out an Ohio Weather Bureau alert.

The district had been warned of possible "severe storms" from 3 to 10 last night and back - county communities had damage, and Steubenville was hard hit, while all the city got was some high

Rail Unions' Accord Stalls Strike Threat

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rail operating unions agreed today to a five-day extension of the deadline in the railroad work rules dispute and delayed the threat of a nationwide strike until next week.

The railroads had agreed Monday night to the extension which Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz requested when it became apparent no settlement could be reached by the first deadline —midnight Wednesday night.

Actually, the agreement by the railroads made a strike unlikely, because they must take the initiative, by putting the disputed work rules into effect, before the five operating unions can react with a strike.

After consultations Monday night and a meeting early this morning, the unions sent the following telegram to Wirtz:

"Please be advised the labor organizations will cooperate."

Commands Governor 'To Desist'

Proclamation Is Issued Prior To Enrollment Bid

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy commanded Alabama's governor today to "cease and desist" from any illegal obstructions of justice or "conspiracies or domestic violence" in the Alabama racial crisis.

Kennedy did so by a presidential proclamation shortly before two Negroes were scheduled to seek entry to the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa in the face of a pledge by Gov. George C. Wallace to block the doorway in person.

Kennedy said he was acting under authority of the Constitution and laws of the United States.

Even as the proclamation was issued here at noon, EDT, Wallace had taken up a stand at the doorway to the university.

Before retiring Monday night, he told newsmen he would stand in the doorway today to prevent Vivian Malone and James Hood from registering.

When asked if he would physically stand in the doorway, Wallace replied: "How else can you stand there?"

Wallace rebuffed a personal appeal from President Kennedy, who wired the governor: "I urgently ask you to consider the consequences to your state and its fine university if you persist in setting an example of defiant conduct and urge you instead to leave these matters in the courts of law where they belong."

Weird Twist Of Timing

Ohio Senate Almost OKs Redistricting Measure

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Because of Republican illnesses and several GOP defections, the Ohio Senate almost passed a congressional redistricting bill for the state Monday night.

It was a weird twist of timing and circumstance that permitted the Democrats to tack a full-scale redistricting bill onto an innocuous little measure to correct the border of the First Congressional District in Hamilton County through a cemetery.

It was only after an amused Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem turned to Senate Republicans and gave them the classic thumbs-down signal that the GOP killed its own bill 15-14.

In the final tally, the bill's sponsor, Sen. Fred L. Hoffman, R-Hamilton, voted against his own bill. Two Republicans—Sens. Charles Jones, R-Butler, and Robin Turner, R-Seneca—voted for it as they had for the amendment. Sen. James Grose, R - Trumbull, who voted for the amendment, voted against the bill. All 12 Democrats present voted for both the amendment and the bill.

Monday night's wild and woolly development could not have happened had it not been that Senate Republicans have three ailing members—Sens. Gordon Renner of Cincinnati, Tennyson Guyer of Findlay and Charles Whalen Jr. of Dayton.

The latter collapsed when he arrived at the statehouse Monday. Associates said it apparently was a combination of an anti - hay fever shot and the intense heat. He has been released by a Columbus hospital and probably will be back on duty today.

Spelling Champ Has Busy Time

By D. DEAN ROACH

WASHINGTON, D.C. (Special) —"Wow!" That's the way Gary Barringer, 14-year-old East Liverpool youth, The Canton Repository's spelling champion, summed up his first day in the nation's capitol.

He retired Monday night to his room in the Mayflower Hotel with tired feet, a day of new experiences and 69 new teen - age friends.

Gary, a student at Westgate Junior High School, is in Washington to compete in the national spelling bee, scheduled to get under way Wednesday morning.

His first glimpse of this historical city was the dome of the Capitol Building as he arrived shortly after 7 a. m. Monday aboard a Baltimore and Ohio train.

Gary, along with the other 69 bee contestants, newspaper escorts and friends and relatives, experienced the hottest June in Washington since 1925. The temperature Monday was 96 degrees, bettering the 1925 reading of 94 degrees.

A time-temperature clock outside the hotel at 3 p. m. Monday read 105 degrees.

One place Gary probably will visit again before he leaves Washington is the Smithsonian Institution. We had only a half hour to spend in the mammouth buildings Monday afternoon and he

Trial For Miss Smith Due To Open Monday

Miss Roberta C. Smith of Fairmont St., former chief clerk in the city water department office, is scheduled to go on trial Monday morning before Common Pleas Court Judge Raymond S. Buzzard at Lisbon on a charge of larceny in connection with an alleged $23,841 shortage in the department in 1959-61.

Charged with embezzlement in connection with the same case, Miss Smith was tried last December. The case ended in a hung jury. The Grand Jury then returned an indictment charging larceny.

Miss Smith pleaded not guilty at arraignment March 5 on the larceny charge. The embezzlement charge still is pending, awaiting retrial. She is free on $1,500 bond in each case.

Hancock Deputy Named Police Chief At Weirton

ED FRANKOVITCH
Selected By Mayor-Elect.

Edward Frankovitch, chief deputy of the Hancock County sheriff's office, was named today as Weirton's new police chief by mayor - elect Frank A. Rybka.

Rybka, who unseated incumbent Mayor David Frew in last Tuesday's municipal election in Weirton, offered the police chief's post to Frankovitch and he accepted, terming the appointment "a complete surprise."

Frankovitch, 6 - foot - 6, 220 pounds, has been a familiar figure in the Hancock County sheriff's office for six years and has been one of its top investigators.

A native of Weirton, he was graduated from Weir High School in 1952 and was later employed by Weirton Steel Co.

Frankovitch was named a deputy sheriff in 1956 by former county Sheriff Clayton H. Hobbs, and

A letter from the Athletic Council, with recommendations on procedures, was turned over to the chairman of the athletic committee for study and a letter from the Beaver County Retired Public School Employes Association, concerning its programs, publications and services, was ordered filed.

The board voted to hire an architect to redesign the high school science room to meet State Department of instruction regulations.

Payment of $25 was authorized for the Rev. J. M. Marbrey, pastor of the First Baptist Church, who participated in Midland High School's baccalaureate and will be in commencement services.

The board congratulated coach Henry Kuzma, basketball coach, who advised in a letter that he had received his master's degree from Duquesne University.

Samuel Rosatone, maintenance supervisor, was authorized to purchase three loads of slag for the 7th St. playground.

Student insurance for the 1963-64 term was continued with Nationwide Insurance Co.

Bids received for the 1963-64 supply of fluorescent lights and starters were opened and rejected.

The board approved the recommendation of the property committee, to contract with the Ellis Office Equipment Co. to repair and service typewriters at $4.75 per unit, and that supplies and equipment in the amount of $4,837.15 be purchased.

The secretary, Miss Bernice Coffin, was authorized to turn over the 1963 tax duplicate to the tax collector.

Interim orders placed by Supt. Jewell during May amounted to $232.69 and were ordered paid, and the library board was authorized to purchase books in the amount of $202.10.

Mrs. Eldamae Castelli, treasurer, reported a $91,540.88 balance in funds, and general bills in the amount of $5,756.58 were ordered paid. Cash receipts in the amount of $1,735.78, were received and placed in proper accounts.

Court which will hold a series of hearings for any protests.

If Common Pleas Court finds there are not enough objections to the plan, it will make an entry in its journal designating the township as a water district, and it will become a political subdivision of the county.

The district will be governed by a Board of Trustees, the number, compensation and duties and terms of office to be set forth in the petition that is presented to Common Pleas Court by county commissioners, acting on the requests of the St. Clair group.

A nine - member committee was named to prepare a rough draft of the petition to be presented to commissioners. It includes Wayne Bernard, Stewart Snyder, Howard Peck, Tom Wooster, Charles Couts, Emil Dominick, Frank Mitcheson, Neal McIntosh and Joseph Coons.

Action to seek the status of a water district followed a report on a water survey presented by City Engineer George Bloomgren.

Bloomgren listed three alternatives — build a complete new water system at an approximate cost of $1.4 million, drill deep wells, or purchase water from East Liverpool at a cost of 35 cents per 1,000 gallons. The proposal for impounding a water supply has already been rejected as it was the only proposal received.

Bloomgren told the group that the Ohio Department of Natural Resources says the possibility of obtaining adequate water supply from deep wells is scant because of the terrain of the area.

He also pointed out that savings on fire insurance on an average home insured for $20,000 would be $17 annually with a central water supply system.

A discussion was held on East Liverpool's master plan and its impact on county planning, and a committee was named to attend a meeting of the East Liverpool Planning Commission tonight at 7:30.

A discussion was held on oiling of a dusty road used by city incinerator trucks en route to the city trash dump, and used by traffic moving to and from a baseball field. Thirty - nine attended at the Calcutta fire hall.

Next meeting is July 1.

didn't begin to see what he had anticipated.

He was especially interested in the air and space building, where John Glenn's Friendship 7 space capsule is displayed. That has a special meaning for Gary because it was on Feb. 20, 1962, that Col. Glenn rewrote history. That was Gary's 13th birthday and he watched the flight on television at home because he was ill.

When asked what he would like to see that wasn't on the planned tours, he asked: "Will we get to see the President?"

President Kennedy delivered the commencement address at American University here Monday morning, so we went to the White House for a couple of hours in hopes of seeing him depart or return. However, hundreds of others had the same thing in mind—to no avail.

"It's big. There's history everywhere you look," Gary said after returning from the tours Monday of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Smithsonian Institution.

Gary got acquainted with the other contestants at a special party Monday night.

Even though he had instructions to forget about the spelling bee and have fun, Gary couldn't resist the chance of learning new words. As soon as he returned to the hotel Monday afternoon, he rushed to a dictionary to learn the spelling of some words he never had heard or seen before.

There was more excitement in store for him today. At 8 a. m., he and the other seven Ohio contestants and their newspaper escorts had a special tour of the White House. He then toured the Lincoln and Jefferson memorials, Arlington National Cemetery, where he witnessed the changing of the guard at the tomb of the unknown soldiers, and drove past other historical buildings.

Then this afternoon he was to have a special meeting with Rep. Wayne L. Hays of Flushing, Ohio, 18th District congressman, in addition to a tour of the Capitol, the Lincoln Museum and Ford Theater and the Petersen House, where Abraham Lincoln died.

There will be a halt in the tours Wednesday for the first day of the bee, but the sight-seeing will resume Thursday afternoon as soon as the bee is completed.

Commissioners Let Project For New Wall

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners Monday awarded Robert E. Kelm of Lisbon a contract to construct a retaining wall and new sidewalk at the County Jail on a low bid of $636.

His bid was one of four. Others were William Shive, $675; Raymond Shive $856, both of Lisbon and Volino Construction of East Liverpool $1,152.

An easement was received from the Bethesda Presbyterian Church for highway purposes for Franklin Township road 843, which required 0.19 acre in the northeast quarter section.

Next meeting is Thursday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Chief probation officer Richard Rose said he violated the terms by forging his brother's name for a car title and a 10-day temporary car license. He also obtained a Virginia driver's license while his Ohio license was under revocation.

In some previous years, the department cut out Saturday work as a way of saving on payroll expense. The street department rarely gets through a year without a financial crisis in the last few months.

Owen said he and Laughlin expect to conduct a "forum" type discussion with the employes, exchanging suggestions on how economies could be set up. He said the administration has not gone into detail in its study on how the economies would be effected.

The fact the city electrician and his helper are carried on the appropriation as part of the street department is another factor that cuts into the department's budget, the director said. The electrician is paid out of various funds, but the electrician's helper is paid entirely out of street department funds and supplies are covered by the same source, he said.

Weirton has no official police chief at present. Capt. Andy Olenick has been serving as acting chief.

wind and a drenching rain. The storm front looked ominous at times.

Negley was without power for a time and hundreds of phones were knocked out of service at East Palestine. Salem had flooding.

Storm signals had been hoisted for the Ohio area of Columbiana, Jefferson, Monroe and Belmont; the upper Panhandle of West Virginia and Beaver and other counties in Western Pennsylvania for the seven - hour danger period.

At East Palestine, 200 telephones were knocked out. Some were part of the 900 put out of service from the area served by Salem.

The damage was to underground cables, which were flooded with water. A crew of 20 was sent from the Youngstown area to assist in repairs, which are to be completed by tonight.

Hail fell throughout the city at 4 p. m. Heavy lightning bolts split the skies, but no homes were hit.

Four transformer fuses were blown out on city lines. They were repaired in a few minutes.

In Negley, parts of the village were without electric power up to three hours. The power went off at 3:45 p. m.

Two homes were struck by lightning at 5 p. m. One, the Robert Samek home on Chamberlin St., was heavily damaged. The damage was to the second floor. The lightning apparently hit the chimney and then "hopped" around through the upstairs rooms, knocking holes in the walls.

Mrs. Samek was the only one in the home at the time. She was downstairs. She was temporarily deafened, but otherwise not injured.

Samek had gone out to put the car away because of the heavy hail. He was outside when the lightning struck.

Two doors away on the same street, the Park Risinger home was struck.

The bolt shattered an electric wall clock as it traveled along house wiring. No other damage was reported.

A three-hour storm — its greatest fury centered on Salem, deluged the area with rain, causing scattered lightning damage, flooding cellars and streets and uprooting trees.

The storm, which lashed the city almost continuously between 3 and 6 p. m., dumped 2.72 inches of water, possibly a record amount in that space of time.

Although the entire district was struck, some parts were virtually unscathed compared with the water-logged Salem area.

The police department was swamped with calls from residents reporting water - filled basements, uprooted trees and impassable streets, malfunctioning traffic signals and extinguished street lights.

Despite periods of violent winds, which blew down some trees, the heaviest damages were caused by the rain that approached cloudburst proportions. Hail also pelted the city.

Traffic and street lights were out of order for hours after the storm.

Low-lying intersections were flooded and some made impassable as the overtaxed storm sewers were unable to cope with the "rivers" of water that churned down the streets.

The Salem News could not operate its presses today because storm sewers back up water into the newspaper's pressroom.

The newspaper's edition was printed today on the press of The Review, sister paper in the Brush-Moore newspapers of the county.

The storm that raced across Columbiana county apparently had spent its fury by the time it reached East Liverpool.

It tumbled temperatures from the torrid 92 afternoon high recorded by the Stratton Dam, which reported only 0.2 inch of rain in that area. Another rainstorm after midnight produced 0.15 inch of precipitation.

The early - evening blow lowered the mercury to 78 by 7 p. m., to 72 at 10 and down to 68 at midnight. The downtown had 64 at 6 a. m. today.

More occasional showers were forecast for this afternoon, diminishing tonight with still cooler temperatures due. The overnight low will be 48 to 54 after a day's high of only 64 to 69.

The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. said it only had occasional service failures.

City street crews were called out immediately to begin cleanup operations.

The major damage was in the Washington St. area downtown.

Winds were estimated at 40 miles an hour.

STEUBENVILLE — A severe storm, accompanied by high winds and rain, caused damage to a two-block area in the downtown section Monday afternoon.

Plate glass windows were blown from the front of six stores and the aluminum siding front was ripped from another.

Power failures were scattered. About a third of the LaBelle View section was without service for three hours when a primary line was blown down.

The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. said it only had occasional service failures.

City street crews were called out immediately to begin cleanup operations.

The major damage was in the Washington St. area downtown.

Winds were estimated at 40 miles an hour.

Court Continues Trial

LISBON—Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard today ordered an indefinite continuance in the case of John J. Ciesielski, 32, of Pittsburgh, who was to have gone on trial today on a charge of burglary of Peoples Drug Store in East Liverpool in June 1960. Ciesielski appeared without counsel and Atty. John B. McDonald of East Liverpool was named by the court to represent him. Ciesielski insisted that the court appoint an attorney he favored. His $5,000 bond was continued.

Politics And Segregation

President Kennedy, a professional politician, knows the problem of civil rights for Negroes in this country ultimately must be solved by political means.

Many things can help a political solution—individual morality, group morality, education, persuasion, prayer. But until the Negro has an unquestioned right to vote and uses his vote to get what he needs, he will be a fractional citizen, as far as his rights are concerned.

This situation is not peculiar to Negroes. It is peculiar to representative government. Southern Negroes are not represented. They are counted as electors for purposes of apportioning seats in Congress, but they have been and still are barred in whole or in part from voting.

Their lot never can be measurably bettered until they elect executives, legislators and judges. This has been the source of all the progress they have made in Northern states. It is the only possible source of progress in Southern states.

THEREFORE, until President Kennedy, a professional politician and official spokesman for the Democratic party, gets down to cases on his party's part in withholding first-class citizenship from many Southern Negroes, his adjurations and implorations to businessmen, professional people, educators, ministers, mayors and others to give Negroes their constitutional rights are only half-hearted.

It does no good for him to shift and scatter responsibility all over the place, when it belongs in one place — his own party's segregationism.

The Southern wing of the Democratic party piles up the seniority that gives its members key posts in Congress, by virtue of a one-party system based on repression of Negro voters.

President Kennedy knows Southern filibusterers can and will tie him in knots on civil rights. He knows Southern racists can and will tie the party in knots if he annoys them unduly.

He knows the most ticklish problem of his political career is this thing of riding two horses at once and that even Vice President Johnson for all his skill in lining up the Southern vote in 1960 cannot solve it for him.

THE DEVOUT have prayed.

Americans with sensitive social consciences have implored and beseeched.

Citizens of good will in all parts of the country, including the Solid South, have expressed shock and disappointment over the adamant refusal of Southern Democratic politicians to budge from segregationism.

But there is only one way the American Negro can break down the barricade erected against him — the way he has broken it down before — through votes.

Only politics can give him what he wants, because what he wants is a full say in government, and government is politics.

As long as politics and government in segregation states are monopolized by segregation Democrats and as long as these Democrats enjoy full standing and respectability in the national Democratic party, there is no point in thinking a Democratic president is going to do more than deplore the existence of a problem he and his party never have solved because if they tried too hard they would shatter the coalition that keeps them in power.

Play It Safe

Ten drownings were reported around Ohio over the weekend, with most occurring in treacherous quarries, pits and streams.

The lesson is clear — stay out of unsafe, unsupervised waters.

The East Liverpool district is blessed with a number of properly-operated swimming pools and lakes. Play it safe and use them instead of taking chances in water that could mean death.

Another Battle Of Gettysburg

A meeting of Republican party personalities at Hershey, Pa., this week may have heavy bearing on next year's choice of a presidential nominee.

It is no accident that Hershey is an hour's driving distance from Gettysburg, where former President Dwight D. Eisenhower makes his permanent home. It is no accident either that the party personalities who will gather at Hershey will look to Eisenhower leadership for the tone and pace of their discussions.

They organized themselves a year ago under Eisenhower leadership at a meeting on the former president's Gettysburg estate — the National Republican Citizens Committee.

Like the backing that boosted the Eisenhower candidacy in 1952 and kept the party nomination from falling to a party regular like Ohio Sen. Robert A. Taft, the committee's purpose is to develop pressure outside the regular organization.

THIS TECHNIQUE'S potentialities were developed as far back as 1940 when "citizens" were encouraged to work independently for the nomination and election of Wendell L. Willkie. The idea then — and now — is to minimize the influence of party regulars.

The so-called "independents" stand firmly convinced that they are the Republican party's real strength and ultimate salvation. They stand as firmly convinced of this as the party regulars, who regard the members of the affiliated groups as bungling amateurs at best and, at worst, political saboteurs.

The regulars have continued to wonder throughout the candidacies of Alfred M. Landons, Mr. Willkie, Thomas E. Dewey, Mr. Eisenhower and Richard M. Nixon what would happen in a showdown between a strong conservative and the New Dealers, Fair Dealers and New Frontiersmen.

GEN. EISENHOWER was elected in 1952 because he was a war hero; his policy views were inconclusive at that time. He subsequently turned moderate in his positions. He never thought of himself as a conservative nor was he considered to be so by the party's outspoken conservatives.

Richard M. Nixon tried to move into a position to the right of Eisenhower in 1960 but not far enough to the right to alarm the moderates. And it is a critical question where the next Republican nominee should stand.

The purpose of the Hershey meeting this week will be to keep the candidate from standing where the Republican party has shied from standing in all its national campaigns since the New Deal got under way —in an avowedly conservative position.

Purely Personal

I think careful attention should be given to circumstantial evidence that many auto accidents are connected with the human "death wish," expressed directly or indirectly in suicidal speeds on public highways.

As one who was looking for jobs before the new generation of job-lookers came along, I want it to be on record that jobs we found wouldn't be considered for a second look by modern job-lookers.

A prized memento of our visit in England is a "rubbing" of one of the brass plates placed over the tombs of Englishmen buried under the floors of cathedrals—this one of an esquire to Richard II in the 14th century. When this life-size likeness had been framed under glass, it cost almost as much as the trip.

I am awestruck by the ability of vegetation whose spring growth is killed by frost to put out new leaves and start over—a phenomenon observed this year on walnut trees, holly bushes and trumpet vines.

Nothing pleases me like a young ballplayer who is called up in an emergency and makes a good showing, because I cannot believe there is an absolute shortage of talent for the big leagues. What I do believe is there is an absolute shortage of ability to pick talent, as is proved over and over by rejectees in baseball and elsewhere who turn out well when given a chance.

One of the many things I never learned to do properly is to fold a pocket handkerchief so there will be just so many points showing, all neat and pretty. In fact, one of many things I never do is wear a pocket handkerchief, with just so many points showing, etc.

I am losing my annual battle with thistles, which are capable of growing a foot every few days when the temperature moderates and the humidity increases. I could hold my own in this contest only if I had nothing to do in June and July but wage it.

If the Soviet Union forces a showdown on United Nations funds, I think the United States should cooperate in every way and settle the question on the Russian obligation to pay a full share. This would amount to calling the Kremlin's bluff. It has everything to lose and nothing to gain by scuttling the U.N. organization.

I like the British idea of the Queen's "birthday list" as a way of honoring citizens for outstanding work. There were 2,100 names on the list this year, including the real name of Coco the Clown—Nikolai Polakovs. About the same number will appear on the New Years Honor List.

In an unusual address to physicians completing special study at the New York Polyclinic Medical School and Hospital, Dr. George James, health commissioner of New York City, said they could save the lives of 12 of 15 potential lung cancer patients if they could persuade them to stop smoking cigarettes.

Norman Thomas, the old-time socialist, refers to the United States as a "garrison state," meaning one whose security is maintained by military influence—and he was not just whistling "Dixie."

"Back to the drawing board" has become a funny way to sum up failure. There was nothing funny about failure in the 19th century when the steamship Leviathan, equipped with 16 engines and 32 separate smokestakes and "designed" to go 32 knots an hour never made over 4 knots and was junked.

Odd Facts

The idea of regarding the number 13 as a "baker's dozen" is thought to have originated in the days when a heavy penalty was imposed on bakers for giving short measure. To be on the safe side and avoid all risk of incurring a fine, the bakers would give an extra loaf or biscuit.

The average automobile travels 100 miles forward for every 100 feet that it is "backed up". Paradoxically, however, the number of accidents that occur while a car is in reverse just about equals the number going forward.

More Than Equality Is Now Involved

By DAVID LAWRENCE

The latest development in the rising tide of bitterness in the racial controversy today is not reflected in the news of the riots or public demonstrations or the speeches by Negro leaders hinting at future violence. It's emerging rather in the invisible influence of some Negro spokesmen in their new demand for positive discrimination.

David Lawrence

This phrase means that, because Negroes have long been discriminated against, equality now will not suffice and that there must be a decided movement upward of the scales in favor of the Negro so he can catch up on the benefits he has failed to get in the past.

It amounts to a call for unabashed discrimination against whites in the matter of employment or promotions. Intensified friction could come about as a result of the pressure being exerted now by the administration in Washington inside and outside the government service.

THE LATEST example of this was brought to the attention of the House of Representatives the other day by Rep. Bruce Alger, R-Tex., in whose district the episode occurred. He said:

"Upon direct orders from Washington in keeping with the President's order to advance Negro employes without regard to civil service procedures, three employes of the Dallas Post Office were given supervisory positions. In a letter of protest which I received this morning from the president of the Dallas local of the United Federation of Postal Clerks, it was pointed out that some 400 employes are presently on the supervisors' promotion register in Dallas and that the register was completely disregarded in the announced promotions, one man being number 54 and the other two considerably farther down the list.

"This action has created a demoralizing effect among the postal workers in Dallas and has created tensions which heretofore did not exist. It is my sincere belief that federal employes of all races and religions and national origins should be treated with justice and fairness.

"For many years every national administration has carefully observed civil service procedures in hiring federal employes and in making promotions, until the advent of the Kennedy administration. Now, in a direct appeal to racial prejudice and in an effort to submit to threats of violence the administration has ordered that civil service procedures be ignored and promotions made strictly on the basis of race."

ANOTHER INSTANCE is that which occurred recently when, in the New Orleans district, the U.S. Army Engineers issued an equal-employment policy statement which said that if the three top eligibles for a job included a Negro and the Negro was not hired, then a formal report explaining why must be made out and that meantime the vacancy must not be filled without written approval. Subsequently the wording was changed from Negro to minority group person.

Rep. John Bell Williams, D-Miss., took the matter up with Chairman Thomas Murray of Tennessee of the House Post Office-Civil Service Committee.

Mr. Murray replied that his legal staff advised that any policy of the kind described is unsound and not in accord with the principle of equal treatment. The New Orleans district of Army Engineers, however, in a letter to Rep. Williams, cited a presidential executive order as authority for its action.

Last week a somewhat similar issue arose in Washington. The white drivers of taxicabs threatened to strike because of a fear that the two companies which hire only white taxi drivers were about to join the many other employers who hire both whites and Negroes.

One of the white cab drivers said that he and his fellow employes were worried about their jobs but that they were even more concerned about the plight of the white citizens, especially women, who will not ride with Negro drivers at night in view of the crime conditions in the District of Columbia.

Much of the discrimination against Negro membership in labor unions in many sections of the country, including the North, stems from the fears of the whites that they may lose their jobs.

Thus economic issues, while not always visible to the naked eye, are becoming a source of much of the friction between white and Negro workers irrespective of any feeling on the race question itself.

THE EMPLOYER is caught between two pressures — that of the government, which can discriminate against him in the matter of contracts awarded, and that of the white citizenry, so many of whom now are being urged to boycott altogether stores and restaurants which become "integrated."

It's not a problem that's going to be solved by street demonstrations or riots or emotional exhortations about "equal rights." When the pocketbook is involved, it becomes a potent weapon on both sides.

Laws do not abolish prejudices. Customs cannot be changed by coercion but only by quiet appeals to reason over a long period of time.

'Tell That Kid To Be Quiet Or He'll Be Sent To Bed Without Any Promises'

Battle Is Joined By Kennedys, Unions

By VICTOR RIESEL

It was inevitable that the brothers Kennedy would clash with thousands of union leaders over the integration of colored workers — especially north of Mason-Dixon. That final conflict has begun. The cold fact is that Negroes have been faring better in the South than in thousands of unions in the North. One estimate has it that outside of the common laborers, the carpenters, the roofers, there are less than 5,000 Negroes being dispatched from union halls to construction jobs employing some three million workers in the nation.

Victor Riesel

Negro leaders say they want the unions to practice what they preach. There are less than 10 skilled building union Negro craftsmen working in the National capital. There are just about as many in New York. There are not many more in Chicago and most other key construction centers.

The White House knows that mass Negro street action in northern communities has not really taken a holiday. For the moment the picketing of building projects is limited and quiet.

But the White House and informed observers are aware of conferences of Negro strategists which have pinpointed targets and even selected what can be called picket captains in hundreds of northern cities.

NONE OTHER than A. Philip Randolph, lone Negro vice president of the AFL-CIO, said quietly but quite pointedly the other day that his people would "picket in every city across the land wherever there is a construction job without Negro workers if we don't get more than token employment. We're sick of tokenism."

A few days ago, after talking to the President, Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz took the first real move towards the field of battle. He dispatched a letter to each of 122 national unions and 335 "federal locals," those directly chartered by the AFL-CIO national office.

These are the labor organizations which signed a pledge in the White House recently and a mighty specific pledge it was. They agreed not to have separate white and Negro locals. They agreed to integrate their apprentice programs, their seniority lists, their job referrals. This is a written pledge, replete with signatures.

Bluntly, Secretary Wirtz wants to know what has been done to fulfill these pledges made in the national spotlight. At the same time the Department of Labor ordered hundreds of specialists into the field. They are going to check local by local—and there are some 50,000 such units in these unions from coast to coast. The survey will go industry by industry.

THIS IS BEING coordinated with Lyndon Johnson's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity, which is reviewing every contract. Each of these compacts made by the federal government has a clause in it giving Negro workers the same tracts involving less than $10,000, or for less than $100,000 for commercial supplies, such as pencils or paper clips.

In the instance of billions of dollars worth of government contracts, the United States could rip them from their holders unless there is Negro employment.

But what if the contractor is willing to hire non-whites and the union refuses to send them along?

Vice President Johnson's counselors are looking into the obtaining of an injunction to prevent the union from interfering. This would permit the contractor to hire in the open market and to employ non-union workers.

If the unions claim here are not sufficient skilled Negro workers, the government will say integrate your apprenticeship programs. If they refuse, then the Labor Department could refuse, in turn, to approve the apprenticeship program and to issue its Certificate of Completion. Without such approval many contractors would not have to hire from the apprenticeship lists. This would open the field.

AND IF THE UNIONS say that they must go by their seniority lists and that the Negroes are far down, the government will retort, integrate them. The United States will say, if the unions reject this, that the contractors can ignore the lists. Thus the employer can hire on the open market or through the U.S.E.S. (United States Employment Service).

All this will be applied to non-government as well as federal construction. Nor is the government restricting itself to the building industry. It wants the white-collar to follow federal blue-collar policies.

Virtually unknown to the country, the Johnson committee issued, on May 29, a directive forbidding the use of any federal funds by secretarial and trade schools which refuse to train and refer Negroes to banks, offices, etc.—or, of course, to federal employment. The U.S. Civil Service already is implementing this order.

There is no doubt that thousands of local unions will resist everywhere. The brothers Kennedy are committed.

Not Much Difference

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

President Kennedy's latest move to get Russian agreement on a nuclear test ban, unless he knows something he hasn't revealed, isn't much different from past efforts and probably won't accomplish any more.

Before he talked Monday in the bright sun at American University's commencement exercises, White House aides had given the speech a big buildup. They said it would be a major foreign policy statement.

They gave it an air of mystery by refusing to indicate beforehand what it was about. The talk, as it turned out, might be considered major. But, because of the history behind it, there was no need for the buildup.

Kennedy announced two things: (1) new discussions with Russia on a test ban would begin soon in Moscow; and (2) this country won't test in the atmosphere if others don't.

Discussions with the Russians on a test ban have been going on five years with so many breaks and new starts they look like a travesty on the art of discussion.

But Kennedy said the new talks —which begin in mid-July—will be "looking toward early agreement on a comprehensive test ban."

Many things may be read into the way Kennedy made the announcement, and the nature of it. For instance, that the talks will (or won't) strengthen Premier Khrushchev's hand in his upcoming meeting with his Red Chinese critics.

For the past five years the biggest stumbling block to a test ban agreement has been Moscow's refusal to permit foreign inspectors inside the Soviet Union to check against cheating in underground tests.

The United States has insisted on them, taking the position that while tests in the atmosphere are relatively easy to detect, there would be no certain way without inspection to distinguish between an earthquake and an underground nuclear blast.

Early last January Khrushchev made a concession: he would agree to permit up to three on-site inspections inside the Soviet Union. Very quickly, as a gesture of good will, Kennedy suspended U.S. underground tests. That was last January.

But nothing happened. The United States wouldn't agree to less than seven inspections.

Last May 25 Kennedy was saying "we will know by the end of summer" whether there is any hope of agreement. Then on May 31 he and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan wrote Khrushchev, proposing a new opening toward agreement.

Khrushchev agreed to a meeting next month between some of his people and representatives of Kennedy and Macmillan. And Kennedy, who made a goodwill gesture in January by suspending underground tests, made another. This time he has said the United States won't test in the atmosphere unless others do.

But all this is pretty much a replay of what Kennedy and Macmillan did last August to try to win Khrushchev over.

They organized themselves a year ago under Eisenhower leadership at a meeting on the former president's Gettysburg estate — the National Republican Citizens Committee.

Like the backing that boosted the Eisenhower candidacy in 1952 and kept the party nomination from falling to a party regular like Ohio Sen. Robert A. Taft, the committee's purpose is to develop pressure outside the regular organization.

THIS TECHNIQUE'S potentialities were developed as far back as 1940 when "citizens" were encouraged to work independently for the nomination and election of Wendell L. Willkie. The idea then — and now — is to minimize the influence of party regulars.

The so-called "independents" stand firmly convinced that they are the Republican party's real strength and ultimate salvation. They stand as firmly convinced of this as the party regulars, who regard the members of the affiliated groups as bungling amateurs at best and, at worst, political saboteurs.

The regulars have continued to wonder throughout the candidacies of Alfred M. Landons, Mr. Willkie, Thomas E. Dewey, Mr. Eisenhower and Richard M. Nixon what would happen in a showdown between a strong conservative and the New Dealers, Fair Dealers and New Frontiersmen.

GEN. EISENHOWER was elected in 1952 because he was a war hero; his policy views were inconclusive at that time. He subsequently turned moderate in his positions. He never thought of himself as a conservative nor was he considered to be so by the party's outspoken conservatives.

Richard M. Nixon tried to move into a position to the right of Eisenhower in 1960 but not far enough to the right to alarm the moderates. And it is a critical question where the next Republican nominee should stand.

The purpose of the Hershey meeting this week will be to keep the candidate from standing where the Republican party has shied from standing in all its national campaigns since the New Deal got under way —in an avowedly conservative position.

I think careful attention should be given to circumstantial evidence that many auto accidents are connected with the human "death wish," expressed directly or indirectly in suicidal speeds on public highways.

As one who was looking for jobs before the new generation of job-lookers came along, I want it to be on record that jobs we found wouldn't be considered for a second look by modern job-lookers.

A prized memento of our visit in England is a "rubbing" of one of the brass plates placed over the tombs of Englishmen buried under the floors of cathedrals—this one of an esquire to Richard II in the 14th century. When this life-size likeness had been framed under glass, it cost almost as much as the trip.

I am awestruck by the ability of vegetation whose spring growth is killed by frost to put out new leaves and start over—a phenomenon observed this year on walnut trees, holly bushes and trumpet vines.

Nothing pleases me like a young ballplayer who is called up in an emergency and makes a good showing, because I cannot believe there is an absolute shortage of talent for the big leagues. What I do believe is there is an absolute shortage of ability to pick talent, as is proved over and over by rejectees in baseball and elsewhere who turn out well when given a chance.

One of the many things I never learned to do properly is to fold a pocket handkerchief so there will be just so many points showing, all neat and pretty. In fact, one of many things I never do is wear a pocket handkerchief, with just so many points showing etc.

I am losing my annual battle with thistles, which are capable of growing a foot every few days when the temperature moderates and the humidity increases. I could hold my own in this contest only if I had nothing to do in June and July but wage it.

If the Soviet Union forces a showdown on United Nations funds, I think the United States should cooperate in every way and settle the question on the Russian obligation to pay a full share. This would amount to calling the Kremlin's bluff. It has everything to lose and nothing to gain by scuttling the U.N. organization.

I like the British idea of the Queen's "birthday list" as a way of honoring citizens for outstanding work. There were 2,100 names on the list this year, including the real name of Coco the Clown—Nikolai Polakovs. About the same number will appear on the New Years Honor List.

In an unusual address to physicians completing special study at the New York Polyclinic Medical School and Hospital, Dr. George James, health commissioner of New York City, said they could save the lives of 12 of 15 potential lung cancer patients if they could persuade them to stop smoking cigarettes.

Norman Thomas, the old-time socialist, refers to the United States as a "garrison state," meaning one whose security is maintained by military influence—and he was not just whistling "Dixie."

"Back to the drawing board" has become a funny way to sum up failure. There was nothing funny about failure in the 19th century when the steamship Leviathan, equipped with 16 engines and 32 separate smokestakes and "designed" to go 32 knots an hour never made over 4 knots and was junked.

Odd Facts

The idea of regarding the number 13 as a "baker's dozen" is thought to have originated in the days when a heavy penalty was imposed on bakers for giving short measure. To be on the safe side and avoid all risk of incurring a fine, the bakers would give an extra loaf or biscuit.

The average automobile travels 100 miles forward for every 100 feet that it is "backed up". Paradoxically, however, the number of accidents that occur while a car is in reverse just about equals the number going forward.

More Than Equality Is Now Involved

By DAVID LAWRENCE

The latest development in the rising tide of bitterness in the racial controversy today is not reflected in the news of the riots or public demonstrations or the speeches by Negro leaders hinting at future violence. It's emerging rather in the invisible influence of some Negro spokesmen in their new demand for positive discrimination.

David Lawrence

This phrase means that, because Negroes have long been discriminated against, equality now will not suffice and that there must be a decided movement upward of the scales in favor of the Negro so he can catch up on the benefits he has failed to get in the past.

It amounts to a call for unabashed discrimination against whites in the matter of employment or promotions. Intensified friction could come about as a result of the pressure being exerted now by the administration in Washington inside and outside the government service.

THE LATEST example of this was brought to the attention of the House of Representatives the other day by Rep. Bruce Alger, R-Tex., in whose district the episode occurred. He said:

"Upon direct orders from Washington in keeping with the President's order to advance Negro employes without regard to civil service procedures, three employes of the Dallas Post Office were given supervisory positions. In a letter of protest which I received this morning from the president of the Dallas local of the United Federation of Postal Clerks, it was pointed out that some 400 employes are presently on the supervisors' promotion register in Dallas and that the register was completely disregarded in the announced promotions, one man being number 54 and the other two considerably farther down the list.

"This action has created a demoralizing effect among the postal workers in Dallas and has created tensions which heretofore did not exist. It is my sincere belief that federal employes of all races and religions and national origins should be treated with justice and fairness.

"For many years every national administration has carefully observed civil service procedures in hiring federal employes and in making promotions, until the advent of the Kennedy administration. Now, in a direct appeal to racial prejudice and in an effort to submit to threats of violence the administration has ordered that civil service procedures be ignored and promotions made strictly on the basis of race."

ANOTHER INSTANCE is that which occurred recently when, in the New Orleans district, the U.S. Army Engineers issued an equal-employment policy statement which said that if the three top eligibles for a job included a Negro and the Negro was not hired, then a formal report explaining why must be made out and that meantime the vacancy must not be filled without written approval. Subsequently the wording was changed from Negro to minority group person.

Rep. John Bell Williams, D-Miss., took the matter up with Chairman Thomas Murray of Tennessee of the House Post Office-Civil Service Committee.

Mr. Murray replied that his legal staff advised that any policy of the kind described is unsound and not in accord with the principle of equal treatment. The New Orleans district of Army Engineers, however, in a letter to Rep. Williams, cited a presidential executive order as authority for its action.

Last week a somewhat similar issue arose in Washington. The white drivers of taxicabs threatened to strike because of a fear that the two companies which hire only white taxi drivers were about to join the many other employers who hire both whites and Negroes.

One of the white cab drivers said that he and his fellow employes were worried about their jobs but that they were even more concerned about the plight of the white citizens, especially women, who will not ride with Negro drivers at night in view of the crime conditions in the District of Columbia.

Much of the discrimination against Negro membership in labor unions in many sections of the country, including the North, stems from the fears of the whites that they may lose their jobs.

Thus economic issues, while not always visible to the naked eye, are becoming a source of much of the friction between white and Negro workers irrespective of any feeling on the race question itself.

THE EMPLOYER is caught between two pressures — that of the government, which can discriminate against him in the matter of contracts awarded, and that of the white citizenry, so many of whom now are being urged to boycott altogether stores and restaurants which become "integrated."

It's not a problem that's going to be solved by street demonstrations or riots or emotional exhortations about "equal rights." When the pocketbook is involved, it becomes a potent weapon on both sides.

Laws do not abolish prejudices. Customs cannot be changed by coercion but only by quiet appeals to reason over a long period of time.

'Tell That Kid To Be Quiet Or He'll Be Sent To Bed Without Any Promises'

Battle Is Joined By Kennedys, Unions

By VICTOR RIESEL

It was inevitable that the brothers Kennedy would clash with thousands of union leaders over the integration of colored workers — especially north of Mason-Dixon. That final conflict has begun. The cold fact is that Negroes have been faring better in the South than in thousands of unions in the North. One estimate has it that outside of the common laborers, the carpenters, the roofers, there are less than 5,000 Negroes being dispatched from union halls to construction jobs employing some three million workers in the nation.

Victor Riesel

Negro leaders say they want the unions to practice what they preach. There are less than 10 skilled building union Negro craftsmen working in the National capital. There are just about as many in New York. There are not many more in Chicago and most other key construction centers.

The White House knows that mass Negro street action in northern communities has not really taken a holiday. For the moment the picketing of building projects is limited and quiet.

But the White House and informed observers are aware of conferences of Negro strategists which have pinpointed targets and even selected what can be called picket captains in hundreds of northern cities.

NONE OTHER than A. Philip Randolph, lone Negro vice president of the AFL-CIO, said quietly but quite pointedly the other day that his people would "picket in every city across the land wherever there is a construction job without Negro workers if we don't get more than token employment. We're sick of tokenism."

A few days ago, after talking to the President, Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz took the first real move towards the field of battle. He dispatched a letter to each of 122 national unions and 335 "federal locals," those directly chartered by the AFL-CIO national office.

These are the labor organizations which signed a pledge in the White House recently and a mighty specific pledge it was. They agreed not to have separate white and Negro locals. They agreed to integrate their apprentice programs, their seniority lists, their job referrals. This is a written pledge, replete with signatures.

Bluntly, Secretary Wirtz wants to know what has been done to fulfill these pledges made in the national spotlight. At the same time the Department of Labor ordered hundreds of specialists into the field. They are going to check local by local—and there are some 50,000 such units in these unions from coast to coast. The survey will go industry by industry.

THIS IS BEING coordinated with Lyndon Johnson's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity, which is reviewing every contract. Each of these compacts made by the federal government has a clause in it giving Negro workers the same tracts involving less than $10,000, or for less than $100,000 for commercial supplies, such as pencils or paper clips.

In the instance of billions of dollars worth of government contracts, the United States could rip them from their holders unless there is Negro employment.

But what if the contractor is willing to hire non-whites and the union refuses to send them along?

Vice President Johnson's counselors are looking into the obtaining of an injunction to prevent the union from interfering. This would permit the contractor to hire in the open market and to employ non-union workers.

If the unions claim here are not sufficient skilled Negro workers, the government will say integrate your apprenticeship programs. If they refuse, then the Labor Department could refuse, in turn, to approve the apprenticeship program and to issue its Certificate of Completion. Without such approval many contractors would not have to hire from the apprenticeship lists. This would open the field.

AND IF THE UNIONS say that they must go by their seniority lists and that the Negroes are far down, the government will retort, integrate them. The United States will say, if the unions reject this, that the contractors can ignore the lists. Thus the employer can hire on the open market or through the U.S.E.S. (United States Employment Service).

All this will be applied to non-government as well as federal construction. Nor is the government restricting itself to the building industry. It wants the white-collar to follow federal blue-collar policies.

Virtually unknown to the country, the Johnson committee issued, on May 29, a directive forbidding the use of any federal funds by secretarial and trade schools which refuse to train and refer Negroes to banks, offices, etc.—or, of course, to federal employment. The U.S. Civil Service already is implementing this order.

There is no doubt that thousands of local unions will resist everywhere. The brothers Kennedy are committed.

Not Much Difference

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

President Kennedy's latest move to get Russian agreement on a nuclear test ban, unless he knows something he hasn't revealed, isn't much different from past efforts and probably won't accomplish any more.

Before he talked Monday in the bright sun at American University's commencement exercises, White House aides had given the speech a big buildup. They said it would be a major foreign policy statement.

They gave it an air of mystery by refusing to indicate beforehand what it was about. The talk, as it turned out, might be considered major. But, because of the history behind it, there was no need for the buildup.

Kennedy announced two things: (1) new discussions with Russia on a test ban would begin soon in Moscow; and (2) this country won't test in the atmosphere if others don't.

Discussions with the Russians on a test ban have been going on five years with so many breaks and new starts they look like a travesty on the art of discussion.

But Kennedy said the new talks —which begin in mid-July—will be "looking toward early agreement on a comprehensive test ban."

Many things may be read into the way Kennedy made the announcement, and the nature of it. For instance, that the talks will (or won't) strengthen Premier Khrushchev's hand in his upcoming meeting with his Red Chinese critics.

For the past five years the biggest stumbling block to a test ban agreement has been Moscow's refusal to permit foreign inspectors inside the Soviet Union to check against cheating in underground tests.

The United States has insisted on them, taking the position that while tests in the atmosphere are relatively easy to detect, there would be no certain way without inspection to distinguish between an earthquake and an underground nuclear blast.

Early last January Khrushchev made a concession: he would agree to permit up to three on-site inspections inside the Soviet Union. Very quickly, as a gesture of good will, Kennedy suspended U.S. underground tests. That was last January.

But nothing happened. The United States wouldn't agree to less than seven inspections.

Last May 25 Kennedy was saying "we will know by the end of summer" whether there is any hope of agreement. Then on May 31 he and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan wrote Khrushchev, proposing a new opening toward agreement.

Khrushchev agreed to a meeting next month between some of his people and representatives of Kennedy and Macmillan. And Kennedy, who made a goodwill gesture in January by suspending underground tests, made another. This time he has said the United States won't test in the atmosphere unless others do.

But all this is pretty much a replay of what Kennedy and Macmillan did last August to try to win Khrushchev over.

Board Appoints 2 New Teachers

The Wellsville Board of Education Monday night hired two new instructors, accepted the resignation of another and reviewed the summer improvement projects.

Miss Frances Karaffa was appointed an elementary teacher for the 1963-64 term at a salary of $4,300 while Miss Marian Izak will be vocal music instructor at a salary of $6,300.

—:—

MISS IZAK, a former teacher in the system, will replace Miss Phyllis Zimmerman, who resigned earlier to accept another position.

Mrs. Marjorie Dysert resigned as a full-time elementary teacher.

The board approved the purchase of maps, globes and mathematics and science teaching aids under Title III of the National Defense Education Act. The total is $2,009, with the state paying half.

Supt. Lowell Myers said suitable materials for the language laboratory could not be found at this time. The materials wanted by the instructors will be available after Oct. 15 and will be secured under the Title III program.

The driver training class has started. Sixty-three registered. Michael Mato is the instructor. Twenty-six students signed for a summer reading class.

An audit has been completed of school activity funds.

THE BOARD voted to have a breakfast for new teachers in the system Tuesday, Sept. 3. The new instructors will attend a program from 8 to 10:30 a. m. and then attend a general teachers' meeting. Board members will pay for the meal from their personal funds.

The old floor in the Beacom Memorial gym has been ripped out. A new floor is to be installed. The contract was let to a Canton firm about a week ago.

The large windows at one end of the gym are being blocked up solid. The windows are not needed with the new lighting system installed last year and rain water leaks around them. The board feared the water would damage the new floor.

EARL MUNDY, supervisor of custodians and maintenance, reported new walks are to be installed this week at Fairview School. The septic tanks at Fairview are not draining property and they are to be inspected next week by an engineer in an attempt to obtain a solution to the problem.

Mundy also reported 20 small window panes at the rear of the high school auditorium were broken by children throwing stones. The board asked him to obtain prices on bricking up the windows.

Bids are to be obtained for construction of a basketball crib for storing equipment and drying uniforms. It will be in the locker-room. A discussion was held on theft of articles from high school and gym lockers.

Mundy said the bare spots at Nicholson Field have been seeded with grass.

Bids will be opened at 10 a. m. Saturday, June 22, for new aluminum windows in the high school building.

—:—

D. L. KEVAN was awarded a contract for installing new exit doors at the far end of the gym on a bid of $1,198.

The seats at the stadium are being turned over as they are rough from wear but smooth on the underside.

The Ohio Power Co. has inspected the poles of the lighting system at the stadium. Two need replaced, new guy wires and anchors are needed on others. Estimates will be obtained on the cost.

Supt. Myers read reports from Mrs. Helen Welch, high school librarian, and Mrs. Jean Tipton, school nurse, listing their activities the past term.

Raymond Rolley, clerk, reported the new appraisal, for insurance purposes, lists the value of all buildings at $1,646,219.

A contract was awarded the Valley Office Equipment Co. of Wheeling for cleaning and repairing school typewriters on a bid of $6.50 per machine. The firm has had the contract the past two years.

THE COLUMBIANA County Board of Elections asked for early certification of any bond issues or levies. Two levies will be up for renewal at the November general election.

Four members will attend a joint meeting of the East Palestine, Leetonia, Lisbon and Columbiana Boards of Education Thursday at 6:30 at Orchard Hill School near Leetonia to discuss mutual problems. Attending will be Earl Bake, Rolley, Supt. Myers and William Farrall, president.

Russell Dysert, board member, was absent.

The board agreed to allow two students who have moved into the district to complete their junior and senior years at Salineville High School if no tuition or transportation costs are involved.

Officer Cites Man In Crash

A Newell man was charged with drunken driving after his car ran into the rear end of a city woman's auto Monday afternoon on W. 5th St.

Chester L. Tucker, 52, of 120 Grant St., was cited by Patrolman W. A. Devon after his auto collided with a stopped car operated by Doris M. Dieringer, 46, of 1836 Smithfield St.

The woman told Officer Devon that no one was behind her when she halted to pick up a passenger. After the passenger got into the car, the 1962 foreign compact was struck from the rear, damaging the rear bumper.

Tucker told police simply that the woman halted and he didn't. There was no damage to his 1957 sedan, police said. The mishap was timed at 1:14 p. m.

Arraigned this morning before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, Tucker entered a not guilty plea through his counsel, Atty. James G. Nuth of Youngstown.

The judge granted a defense motion for a continuance, setting the hearing Tuesday, June 18, at 9 a. m.

Atty. Nuth explained he entered the case only a short time before the arraignment and required time to consult with his client. Tucker's bond of $507.50 was continued.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Somebody neglected to pick a native state for Sir Winston Churchill when he became America's first and only honorary citizen last April.

The oversight was corrected Monday when the British statesman was commissioned a Kentucky colonel by Gov. Bert Combs.

To make sure Churchill knows what his state produces, he also is getting a special five-gallon barrel of Kentucky bourbon. The commission and the keg will be presented to Churchill on July 4 —Independence Day.

The House of Representatives is the only governmental body that may bring impeachment proceedings.

Bridge To Get Plaque

LISBON — A 3-x-4-foot marker provided by the Northern Ohio Covered Bridge Society will be placed on this covered bridge in Elkrun Township June 30 at 2 p. m. It will mark the shortest covered bridge in the nation.

The marker reads "this covered bridge, over Middle Run, Elkrun Township, Columbiana County, is the shortest covered bridge in the United States still standing on the once used public highway, having a clear span of 19 feet and 3 inches. It is an example, rarely found covered, of the simplest, most basic truss design, the two-panel kingpost truss. It has withstood the rigors of time and traffic since the 1870's and stands in eloquent testimony of the fine craftsmanship of the early bridge builders."

A large delegation of the Ohio society, as well as the National Covered Bridge Association, is expected to attend the dedication.

The Church Hill Rd. bridge crosses Middle Run within Elk Run Township Section 8, two and a half miles northeast of Lisbon.

The little structure is on its original abutments in a small County Park created by County Commissioners to preserve it for posterity and for use by the public.

The bridge was on Township Road 867, authorized in 1811 and is now bypassed. It is thought to have been built in the 1870's and saw marks on the timbers indicate an up-and-down saw, operated by water power was used.

John A. Diehl, chairman of the Ohio Covered Bridge Committee of Cincinnati, will be the speaker.

There will be direction arrows off all main routes in and near Lisbon guiding visitors to the bridge. The public is invited.

State Project On Street Set

SALINEVILLE — Legislation to have Main St. resurfaced by the State Highway Department was adopted by Village Council Monday night.

The project will cost the village $800. The ordinance contains a clause that parking will be limited to the south side of Main St. from Route 164 to the Railroad crossing.

Councilman Donald Lewis abstained from voting. Mayor Stanley Fitch said he will appeal to the highway department for more parking along the section.

The mayor referred the raising of catch basins to the street committee.

In other business, Council again discussed a 4-year contract calling for increased rates proposed by the Ohio Fuel & Gas Co. The proposal calls for a 39-cent increase on the present flat rate.

The mayor said he will name a six - man committee, including Councilmen Orville Tolson and Lewis, along with four citizens, to study the measure.

A resolution was ordered to reserve a four-foot sidewalk for residents and a 10-foot turning area on the south end of a 16-foot alley dividing the Thomas Strabley property.

Bridge To Get Plaque

LISBON — A 3-x-4-foot marker provided by the Northern Ohio Covered Bridge Society will be placed on this covered bridge in Elkrun Township June 30 at 2 p. m. It will mark the shortest covered bridge in the nation.

The marker reads "this covered bridge, over Middle Run, Elkrun Township, Columbiana County, is the shortest covered bridge in the United States still standing on the once used public highway, having a clear span of 19 feet and 3 inches. It is an example, rarely found covered, of the simplest, most basic truss design, the two-panel kingpost truss. It has withstood the rigors of time and traffic since the 1870's and stands in eloquent testimony of the fine craftsmanship of the early bridge builders."

A large delegation of the Ohio society, as well as the National Covered Bridge Association, is expected to attend the dedication.

The Church Hill Rd. bridge crosses Middle Run within Elk Run Township Section 8, two and a half miles northeast of Lisbon.

The little structure is on its original abutments in a small County Park created by County Commissioners to preserve it for posterity and for use by the public.

The bridge was on Township Road 867, authorized in 1811 and is now bypassed. It is thought to have been built in the 1870's and saw marks on the timbers indicate an up-and-down saw, operated by water power was used.

John A. Diehl, chairman of the Ohio Covered Bridge Committee of Cincinnati, will be the speaker.

There will be direction arrows off all main routes in and near Lisbon guiding visitors to the bridge. The public is invited.

State Project On Street Set

SALINEVILLE — Legislation to have Main St. resurfaced by the State Highway Department was adopted by Village Council Monday night.

The project will cost the village $800. The ordinance contains a clause that parking will be limited to the south side of Main St. from Route 164 to the Railroad crossing.

Councilman Donald Lewis abstained from voting. Mayor Stanley Fitch said he will appeal to the highway department for more parking along the section.

The mayor referred the raising of catch basins to the street committee.

In other business, Council again discussed a 4-year contract calling for increased rates proposed by the Ohio Fuel & Gas Co. The proposal calls for a 39-cent increase on the present flat rate.

The mayor said he will name a six - man committee, including Councilmen Orville Tolson and Lewis, along with four citizens, to study the measure.

A resolution was ordered to reserve a four-foot sidewalk for residents and a 10-foot turning area on the south end of a 16-foot alley dividing the Thomas Strabley property.

Liquor Unit Takes On New Look

By WILLIAM S. VANCE
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio—A lean, mobile force of agents, a tougher policy on permit renewals and an improved public relations program.

These are the tools State Liquor Director Donald D. Cook is using in a campaign to slash violations and take some of the mystery out of the complex operation of the Ohio Department of Liquor Control.

Cook, schooled in law enforcement with the State Highway Patrol and the FBI, has been making his presence felt here in many ways since his appointment in January by Gov. James A. Rhodes.

FOR ONE THING, he has trimmed his staff of agents from 75 to 60 and has shuffled assignments among the state's seven enforcement districts with a sharp eye on efficiency.

And, placing greater emphasis on centralized enforcement, he has formed special undercover squads which can be dispatched quickly out of Columbus on "trouble" assignments.

Cook isn't divulging any further information about this force except that he hopes to expand it soon.

-:-

DOES HE CONSIDER his 60-man staff of agents adequate?

"That depends on the type of enforcement we get at the local level," Cook said.

"I feel the primary responsibility for liquor enforcement still rests with local police and sheriffs," he said. "They are particularly familiar with trouble areas.

"The state, with its limited number of agents, should supplement and work on those areas where local authorities need help."

-:-

COOK SAID cooperation from local enforcement agencies has increased sharply during the last three months. "mainly because the governor has instituted a board that cracks down on violators."

He refers to the three-man Ohio Liquor Commission which has replaced the old four-man board. The board often had its hands tied by 2-2 deadlocks that resulted in long delays and often no action in cases of alleged violations.

"The commission has been very severe on repeated violators," Cook said, "and local police dpartments are taking new interest in liquor enforcement."

-:-

COOK POINTS OUT that last year the state refunded $11 million in permit fees to local governments.

"That money goes into their general funds and, of course, is used for about everything," he said. "I'd like to see the commission earmark specific funds for enforcement. With these funds, communities could correct a lot of local situations by themselves."

DONALD D. COOK, state liquor director (seated), is shown going over a report with Floyd C. Moon, Ohio's liquor enforcement chief.

Further changes in liquor agent assignments are under study.

"We're presently evaluating the work of our men," Cook said. "We'll probably transfer some more agents from our districts to Columbus.

"We've hired only about two agents since we've been here. "We'd like to have more applications . . . and better ones."

-:-

BUT RECRUITING poses a big problem, Cook said.

"This is the most difficult type of law enforcement there is because of the temptations thrown at the agents," he continued. "After all, to do their job right, they have to drink on the job."

All applications are screened carefully by Cook's right-hand man, Floyd C. Moon, deputy director in charge of the enforcement, permits, public relations and beer and wine divisions.

Moon, a former Marion resident, also has a long background in law enforcement in the highway patrol where he has served as assistant superintendent. It was in the patrol that Cook and Moon struck up a friendship that has remained strong since the late 1930s.

-:-

TWICE DURING the administration of Gov. Frank J. Lausche, the governor "borrowed" Moon from the patrol to clean up what Lausche had figured was a bad situation in the enforcement division.

Moon did the job, then returned to the patrol. Now he has retired there.

On all his assignments he won a reputation as a hard-working enforcement officer who went down the line on his assignment without fear or favor.

Cook insists on nothing but the best from his agents.

"We don't hesitate to take disciplinary action if we find one of our agents out of line," he said. "But we must constantly be on the alert to separate fact from fiction in complaints. Rumor-mongering is one of the big problems we have."

-:-

COOK SAYS his biggest headaches come from permit applications and renewals. He has the almost impossible job of policing 25,000 permit holders operating on some 45,000 various types of permits.

To help ease the headaches, Cook has set in action a tougher policy on renewals.

He's asking local police, school and church officials to put their objections in writing in cases of complaints involving permit holders.

In the past, the department has been criticized for renewing permits even though the permit holder had a growing list of violations. Cook is out to halt that practice.

-:-

"WE'RE HAVING a real hard look at all applications," he said.

Cook also is putting more emphasis on public relations to help shed some light on the department's operations.

"Few people know the hows, whys and wherefores of permit applications," he said. "Our data-processing system is giving us a chance to give periodic notification to applicants to let them know the status of their applications."

There always are more applications than there are permits available, Cook explains, and that means there always are a lot of anxious people on the waiting list.

-:-

"WE WANT to let them know they don't have to hire specialists to come in here to find out things," said Cook.

"The door is always open."

Council Cancels Special Session As Unnecessary

A special Council meeting scheduled Monday night was canceled at the suggestion of Mayor Bert H. Goodballet, who explained that late developments in connection with the two topics that were to be discussed made the session unnecessary.

Council was to have acted on questions in connection with proposed construction of a ramp over the dead - end section of W. 9th St. and the type of pipe that will be used in a sewer system in reconstruction of St. Clair Ave. between Princeton Ave. and the city limits.

Mayor Goodballet said the administration is pursuing investigation of ways of saving the city money in connection with its share of the W. 9th St. ramp project, which will be built in conjunction with the State Highway Department and the Federal Bureau of Public Roads. As a result, Council's action can be delayed until its regular session next Monday without interfering with the timetable for the job, he said.

The mayor also said he was advised the city will not have to take further steps immediately to indicate its preference for vitrified pipe over concrete pipe for the St. Clair project. He said he will write a letter to the Highway Department asking it to take alternate bids on the two types of material in letting the contract. The question can be decided finally by the city when prices are available on the two types of material, the mayor explained.

NEW CUMBERLAND — More than 500 attended commencement exercises at New Cumberland High School Monday night. Council Cancels Special Session As Unnecessary

A special Council meeting scheduled Monday night was canceled at the suggestion of Mayor Bert H. Goodballet, who explained that late developments in connection with the two topics that were to be discussed made the session unnecessary.

Council was to have acted on questions in connection with proposed construction of a ramp over the dead - end section of W. 9th St. and the type of pipe that will be used in a sewer system in reconstruction of St. Clair Ave. between Princeton Ave. and the city limits.

Mayor Goodballet said the administration is pursuing investigation of ways of saving the city money in connection with its share of the W. 9th St. ramp project, which will be built in conjunction with the State Highway Department and the Federal Bureau of Public Roads. As a result, Council's action can be delayed until its regular session next Monday without interfering with the timetable for the job, he said.

The mayor also said he was advised the city will not have to take further steps immediately to indicate its preference for vitrified pipe over concrete pipe for the St. Clair project. He said he will write a letter to the Highway Department asking it to take alternate bids on the two types of material in letting the contract. The question can be decided finally by the city when prices are available on the two types of material, the mayor explained.

Cambridge Due Disaster Aid In Action By SBA

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio (AP)—This east-central Ohio area, denied being designated a disaster area by Gov. James A. Rhodes, received the tag Monday by the Small Business Administration.

The designation will allow home owners, businesses, churches and charitable institutions in Guernsey County to obtain reconstruction or rehabilitation loans at 3 per cent interest.

The federal help came as residents continued to clean up after last week's flash flood sent wells and crooked creeks far out of their banks.

Mayor James B. Peters had asked Rhodes to call the area a disaster area, which would make it possible to receive federal help in rebuilding public property. Rhodes, however, following the recommendation of Adj. Gen. Erwin C. Hostetler, did not make the designation.

Court set damages in each case at $75, making it a misdemeanor.

Higgins has not been sentenced, pending a possible appeal.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My brother and his wife have an only child who is 10 years old going on 18—if you know what I mean. They take the girl everywhere, claiming she is very mature and fits in with adults beautifully. She is mature for her age, Ann, but she still is a 10-year-old child.

Some of their friends simply have stopped inviting them over because they insist on bringing the girl. It is not so easy for a relative, however.

Last week we had a dinner party. Since it was on a school night we felt certain they'd leave the youngster at home, but they didn't. The evening was ruined by the child's presence. Her mother insisted she give several readings and the guests were bored stiff.

After they left we decided this was the last straw. Shall we not invite them in the future and risk a breach in the family? Or shall we tell them they cannot bring the girl to our adult parties?—ENOUGH IS ENOUGH.

Dear Enough: Tell them — which is what you should have done ages ago.

Perhaps these parents don't realize that adults resent the intrusion of a 10-year-old. Moreover it's not good for the child. these overly mature kids can turn out to be obnoxious little characters if they've been the center of attraction too often and too long.

Swiss Yodeler

Dear Ann: As a Swiss I am compelled to comment on the letter written by a compatriot of mine. I cannot decide whether she is ignorant of the common usage of the English language or if she truly believes that a woman who does manual work cannot be classified as a lady.

The latter assumption would seem unlikely from an individual whose country prides itself on being the cradle of Europe's oldest democracy.

I, as a loyal Swiss, feel that such statements reflect poorly on all of us. It is too bad this ambassador of ill-will does not keep herself hidden in the mountains where she can do no harm. — HEIDI.

-:-

Dear Heidi: Many Swiss wrote to complain about the poor impression "Swiss Mrs." had projected.

No group should be judged by the behavior of one individual. I agree emphatically that we should not judge the Swiss by this one.

Mother Of The Bride

Dear Ann: Our daughter was married two years ago to a nice boy. It took us a year to pay off the debts from her wedding. We also helped furnish their apartment.

Since they were both working and going to college they ate most of their meals with us. They had a darling baby girl a year later and again we helped all we could.

Six months ago our son-in-law was offered a good position in his home town, so they moved.

Last week I went to visit them and it was wonderful — until the boy's mother opened her mouth.

The first moment she and I were alone she shouted, "How can you call yourself a mother when you don't do one thing for your daughter? She came to this town practically naked and barefoot. We pay the rent, buy the groceries and clothe the baby. You have much more money than we do yet you don't do anything for them."

I left without saying a word. I've never been so hurt. Should I write and explain that we aren't millionaires and that we do all we can? I am sick over this. — S. J.

Dear S. J.: Don't write—and don't get into a contest with that dingbat to see who can do more for the children. If your son-in-law has a good position he should be paying his own rent, buying his own groceries and clothing his own child.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

State Board Gets Proposal On Teaching

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio students would be taught about "the dangers of our way of life that are inherent in all totalitarian ideologies" under a proposal received Monday by the State Board of Education.

Robert Walker of Adena, chairman of the board's committee on comparative governments, at the same time advocated an intensification in the teaching of Americanism.

Walker urged the board to consider his proposed resolution at its July 8 meeting. "What the resolution proposes can be accomplished in courses now being taught," he said.

He said the committee feels that the resolution would not conflict with the "Spirit of '76" Law, which provides for basic instruction in Americanism before courses can be offered dealing with communism and other ideologies.

The board was reduced to 22 members with the resignation of Mrs. Hazel Walker of Cleveland, who recently moved to Massachusetts. Gov. James A. Rhodes can name a successor to serve until the November election.

Board members were told in a report from the state Department of Education that Ohio's teacher supply outlook may become brighter. The report said, among other things, that 4,400 more prospective teachers are enrolled this year than last year.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I gave somebody's idea on washing windows a new twist!

The next time the girls reach for that clean cloth they could grab a clean dust mop instead. A separate mop especially for this purpose is worth it's weight in gold. Pull the shades up or whisk open the drapes and dust away.

With the same amount of strokes a wife ordinarily takes, she will not only postpone some window washing but dust the sill, the ledge, the decorative cross-sections, roust those pesky little spiders, and perhaps convince her neighbors she is not herself that day!

My neighbor's dog with the sweet ugly face even showed scepticism as it eyed the whole process from safely outside the picture window.

NANCY B. KEISER.

Ladies, here's another one I'm going to ask you not to knock until you've tried it. Try buying one extra mop-head for your dust mop (which can be used by hand—just like this woman says). Instead of 15 strokes and a lot of energy it ordinarily takes with a rag, it will take only a few. Keep this extra mop-head especially for dusting your windows. Look at the energy you will save. I love that Nanc!

Ironer Cover

DEAR HELOISE: Those who have electric ironers. . . we found the reason that ours was not ironing well was that it has six different pieces of cloth on it and each one sagged and wrinkled (and this made lumps).

Take off all of the old covering down to the padded base covering, that fits tight on the roller.

Buy the cheapest muslin you can find so that it will shrink, but and hem as wide as the roller, then pin one side of the cloth across the roller.

Pull the cloth tight around it and clamp the ironer down. Pin this as tight as you can. Then cut off the extra material so that it does not overlap too much. You only want it to meet the first part.

Sew this by hand as tightly as you can and fasten the edges in a few places. Now take a wet press cloth and run it through your ironer several times and you will have a tight fitting cover, just like the new ones. By running the wet cloth through the ironer it shrinks the muslin a bit and it is skin-tight, thus avoiding puckers and wrinkles.

DEAR HELOISE: When cooking hot cereal for our children. . . before dishing the cereal up in bowls, mix the butter, sugar and cream right in the saucepan while the cereal is still on the stove, then dish it up.

Anyone with small children will find this method just wonderful. There is no mess at the table and no fighting over which child has the sugar, no spilled cereal over the sides of the bowl, either, while stirring it. . .

5 Coast Guard Boats Hunt For Cruiser On Lake

CLEVELAND (AP) — Five Coast Guard boats searched a section of Lake Erie today for a 25-foot cabin cruiser that radioed for help during a short but violent thunderstorm.

Coast Guard rescue operations began late Monday after the craft reported it was taking on water four miles off Gordon Park and several persons aboard had donned life jackets. There were 15-foot waves in the area, and winds reached 70 miles an hour in greater Cleveland.

A night-long hunt failed to turn up any trace of the cruiser or its passengers, the Coast Guard said. Rescue boats, equipped with huge spotlights, criss-crossed the lake in an area between the western entrance to the city's harbor and Moss Point near Eastlake.

The trouble call was picked up first by the steamer Goodtime II, a pleasure launch, and later by a Cleveland tug officer dispatcher, the Coast Guard said.

The boat's location was established on the basis of a conversation between an unknown ham operator and the cruiser.

Father Pleads Guilty To Drowning Girl

CLEVELAND (AP) — After being on trial for more than a week, 27-year-old Lawrence Billingsley changed his plea to guilty to a first-degree murder charge of drowning his 5-year-old daughter.

The move could bring Billingsley to the electric chair in sentencing by a three-judge panel. Common Pleas Court Judge Roy F. McMahon, who was presiding, accepted the plea Monday.

The defendant said he changed his earlier plea of innocent on the advice of his attorneys and his brother. He is accused of drowning his daughter, Janetta Lee, in a bathtub. In a signed statement he told of drowning her to get even with his common-law wife, Della Lee, 29, because he said she was running around with other men, police said.

Boy Electrocuted

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Sixteen-year-old Michael Baumgardner of nearby Louisville was killed Monday night by an electric shock in a swimming pool when he touched a pipe connecting an electric motor used to operate pumping facilities. Police said he was standing in a boat at Menegay Pool when he touched a pipe leading to a motor which runs a pump that throws water from the pool into a filtering area.

Beaver Creek Site

Details Of Park Expansion Aired

LISBON — Various questions have been raised concerning the development of Beaver Creek State Park, which is being sponsored by the Columbiana County Forests and Parks Council, according to officers of the council.

The following statement was issued in an attempt to answer the questions:

"The Beaver Creek State Park was set up as a forest park by the legislature in 1945. The land included in the park area involved whole sections in various townships from Elkton to the Ohio River.

"Approximately 20,000 acres are included in the general area of which 1,265 were acquired by the state in the late 40's.

LITTLE HAS been done toward acquisition of land or development of the park other than the picnic area at the park headquarters at Gaston's Mill south of Clarkson and a primitive camping site nearby.

"The land mapped as park area includes some farms which will not be acquired by the state. It is not the intention to purchase good farm land but only the rough land of low valuation for park purposes. The steep hillside, the gorges, and the valleys are quite scenic and offer all kinds of opportunities for outdoor recreation.

"SOME CITIZENS have been concerned about the reduction of the tax valuation in these townships by acquisition of this land by the state.

"This problem was carefully studied by the members of the Forests and Parks Council and it was found that the additional facilities for recreational purposes that would come into the area would greatly offset the reduction in valuation of the rough land used.

"This is the only scenic recreation area of this type in Northeastern Ohio. It is located within reach of 10 million people. Last year there were 85,000 visitors at the park and it is practically unknown and undeveloped.

"The development of service stations, restaurants, food and sporting goods stores and similar facilities would add to the valuation of these townships.

THIS FACT has been demonstrated time and again in other places.

"The question of reduced tax valuation by state rather than by private ownership was studied by a group of citizens who more or less reluctantly recommended establishment of Beaver Creek State Park 20 years ago.

"This group decided that the project was too large to ever be developed by private ownership. Lack of funds, however, has prevented the state from making much progress during the last 15 years.

"The Forests and Parks Council hopes that funds will be made available within the next year for acquisition of land and the development of the park. The council members recognize the tremendous possibilities for economic development of the county as well as providing recreational facilities.

—:—

THE PARK is regarded as an economic asset. With the planned new highways leading into this area, the citizens of the county would be amiss if they did not take advantage of the opportunity for the development of one of the greatest outdoor recreational and picnicking areas in this part of the country.

"When developed and known, council officers predict that thousands of people will come into the area weekly during the summer months.

LAND to be acquired for the park will be by voluntary sale only. Undoubtedly some of the land in the gorge will continue to remain in private hands. Land to be purchased will be paid for only at reasonable rates. Funds are not yet available to start work.

"The Columbiana County Forests and Parks Council consists of a group of citizens elected annually by representatives of various interested organizations as well as interested individuals.

"Atty. Donald Elliott of Rogers is the chairman. Other officers include Steve Barborak, West Point, vice-chairman, and Floyd Lower, Lisbon, secretary-treasurer.

Out Of The Air

By ALAN GILL

The Wrong Side Of The Law

The darkly illegal face of Ben Gazzara has, since his initial stage success ("End as a Man") and its movie adaptation ("The Strange One"), stood him in good stead as the surly, sadistic type who sasses old ladies, teases small animals and lets the air out of a patrol car's tires. He has done these things with considerable charm and thereby made the wrong side of the law the right side.

Alan Gill

But next fall, Gazzara will show up in ABC's Sunday night lineup as Detective Sgt. Todd Anderson in the "Arrest" segment of the 90-minute "Arrest and Trial."

(Chuck Connors will play the attorney who defends the culprit apprehended by Gazzara, once the "Trial" segment gets under way.)

-:-

GAZZARA admitted the other day that his conversion to law and order ran counter to nature's code, but he would wear his shield with honor.

"I loved the nasty part of Jocko de Paris in 'End as a Man,'" he confided. "It got all my hostilities out. Now I can be a good guy.

"The guy in 'Arrest and Trial,' by the way, is going to be as unconventional as we can make him.

"It all started out as a 'where were you on the night of' sort of thing. But there'll be none of that, and no 'yes ma'am, no ma'am' either.

"I've just been talking to Frank Rosenberg, the executive producer of the show, and we're in agreement about where to go with the character.

"THE SERGEANT is more of a person than he is a sleuth — an intelligent kind of guy from a bright background. (His father's a philosophy teacher.) Anderson is a widower, so he can have an occasional romance.

"We'll create conflicts in him. Suppose, for instance, he arrests a murderer and he (the sergeant) is against capital punishment — that sort of thing."

Gazzara, who is vehemently anti-capital punishment himself, said he never would appear in a story in which gas chambers were made to seem as socially acceptable as steam rooms.

As for euthanasia, he said, "When you kill someone to relieve him of unbearable pain, you never know whether science is that moment coming up with an answer, a cure. You'd never forgive yourself."

-:-

SUCH ETHICAL problems will be the stuff of "Arrest and Trial" — at least at times.

"We'll show the pathetic side of crime," said Gazzara, "the side of the criminal that should be pitied."

Why is a theater and (occasionally) a movie man like Gazzara jumping, with eyes open, into a TV series?

"There are only so many things an actor here can do," he said. "This isn't like England where an actor has a theater town, London, that's also a movie town.

"I suppose eventually the Actors Studio theater on Broadway will offer some actors a Renaissance life, with occasional time off to make some money."

-:-

(GAZZARA currently is playing in the Actors Studio production of O'Neill's "Strange Interlude," which runs through nine acts and five intensely dramatic hours.)

Meanwhile, TV is the only steady crap game going on and an actor has to jump into it.

"Besides," he added, "I despise inactivity. You can wait five months between films or two years between plays, if you want; but it sure gets on the nerves. I've got too much energy. When they said, 'Want to do a five-hour play?' I said, 'Fine!' 'A weekly television series?' 'Swell!'"

-:-

GAZZARA'S WIFE, actress Janice Rule, also will be a busier girl now that their headquarters will be established in Los Angeles.

"She did a TV show just recently out there," Gazzara said, "so she could find us a house. She did — a wonderful place out at Malibu. Ocean! Beach! Sun!"

And after all that ocean! beach! sun — what then?

"I'd like to direct," he said. "I'll direct some of the "arrest' episodes two years from now, when I know enough about film techniques.

"And, of course, there's Actors Studio. They'll be doing Shakespeare in '64, and I've always had my eye on 'Macbeth' for 'some day.' I'd like to try Iago. And then, there's that other guy, the big guy, the one we all watch."

Sgt. Anderson, meet the Prince of Denmark!

Report Card Time Can Be Happy Or Sad

When I was a school boy, there was a poem in my reading book that I liked called "When the Cows Come Home." If I recall correctly, it contained these words: Ca - ling, Ca - lang, Ca - lingle." They suggested pleasant sounds and stirred up happy feelings in me. In contrast, when the grades come home, as at the end of the school year, there often are unpleasant sounds, unhappy feelings. Imagine hearing some of the unpleasant words said to the child who didn't get promoted. Imagine how you might feel in his place and suppose this child's brother or sister heard joyful sounds about his own report card.

Dr. Garry Meyers

COULD IT BE a child of yours we are talking about? It could be, but let's hope it's not.

Suppose you already knew a child of yours would not be promoted this June to the next grade. Suppose you didn't. In either event, I hope both you parents will act wisely and humanely when he brings home his final report. Express no condemnation or scolding. It's water over the dam anyway.

He may already be downcast, almost heartbroken. Kindly let him know you are going to try to help him do better from now on.

Most of all, you would not remind him that a brother, sister or playmate won good grades. If you knew of ways whereby he might, by passing an examination next September, win promotion, you would proceed to take measures soon to help him get ready for his test.

Suppose from the information you got from his teacher or from a private specialist, you figure his chances for earning promotion in the fall are very poor. Then you should do your best to help him forget about the matter.

SUPPOSE YOUR child's report said he was promoted on probation, on condition that he did much better the first few weeks in the fall or be demoted then. You might be tempted in the meanwhile to warn him of the threat—the sword of Damocles hanging over his head.

In some schools all children are promoted to the next grade no matter how poorly they achieved. They and their parents usually escape worries for the time being.

If your child, promoted in such a school, has been lagging badly, you should have great concern. Unless he is helped to bring up his arrears he will face inevitable "failure," or not be promoted or graduated by and by.

This child won't deserve your rebuke. You will need to get the best help you can find for him to bring up his arrears. The chances are great that he is a poor reader.

If summer school is available he might get help there. Or you might find a skillful tutor for him this summer or next fall or both. Or, if your are patient, you might be able to help him yourself.

—:—

IN ANY CASE if your child's arrears seem great, you should ascertain how great they are and make your plans accordingly. One thing is certain, rebuke and abuse won't help him. Ways must be found for him to enjoy successes to the degree he has ability to do so.

With remodeling virtually completed, the A. & P. Super Market at 619 Walnut St. will be closed next Monday to prepare for a "grand reopening" on Tuesday, store officials said today.

Virtually rebuilt in the renovation project, the store will have about 20 per cent more floor space and substantially expanded parking room, with space for about 120 cars. The north end of the parking lot has been given a new blacktop surface, with white lines to mark spaces for cars.

Enamelled panelling and stone masonry provide a "brand new" appearance on the front of the store. New and improved refrigerated display cases will be provided for dairy items, frozen foods, fresh fruits and vegetables and other foods.

Entire new departments have been set up for coffee and bakery foods. The improvements also include a new office and a new public address system.

A pedestal sign at Broadway and St. Clair Ave. will aid in directing traffic onto the market property from the west.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

New Interest Bolsters Dieting Power

It's easy to start a diet, but after ten days to two weeks enthusiasm wilts and your will weakens. Analyze why the steam goes out of your drive at almost the identical place in each reducing attempt, for this insight can help you to bridge the difficult period.

Ida Jean Kain

When you lose four or five pounds, you feel slimmer, but perhaps nobody noticed or mentioned that you looked slimmer. At the beginning of a reducing program the compliments are nil, the rewards are meager and the self-denial seems so great. You begin to doubt that it is worth all the sacrifice you are making. Doubt dampens your enthusiasm.

At this point, give yourself an invigorating challenge. What are you really giving up when you muster the gumption to stop overeating? You are giving up excess pounds!

ISN'T THIS the greatest favor you could do for yourself? When you say a decided "No" to some fattening extra, you are in effect saying a triumphant "YES" to success. This fascinating mental turn may do the trick for you.

Find ways to rekindle your interest. Do you have a test skirt? With three to four pounds off, your skirt band will fit a bit better. Feeling slimmer helps you to form a mind picture of yourself with a lissome waist. This in turn makes it easier to follow through on stretch-bends.

Stretch to pull the waist away from the hips, and the ribs away from the waist. Bend sidewards to restore tone to the midsection muscles.

Be sure to hold the bend to a slow count of ten. It's no effort to stretch and bend! First thing you know the waist is a half-inch slimmer—glory be!

On the right food pattern there is no question but what you can lose the excess pounds. Here again a challenge can spur you on. Resolve to change from high starch, high sugar meals to high protein, building each of the three meals around a high value protein food.

Do this and you'll have far less trouble on the hunger score. Eat to build slimness on three modest meals a day, plus scientific pick-ups to cut ahead of hunger. At 4:00 in the afternoon a half ounce of cheese and a cup of tea can save the diet day.

—:—

REGARD A protective, regular plan of eating as a scientific way to achieve your goal. This mature approach prevents the feeling of self-denial which fosters self-pity. Recognize that self-pity leads to alibis instead of success.

Regard second helping and overly fattening desserts as being against your best interests. This refreshing approach actually has transforming power.

Lisbon To Get Machine For Road Striping

LISBON—Council Monday night let a contract to the Kelly-Crisswell Co. of Xenia for a new striping machine for use in painting street lines at a cost of $650, including trade-in of $150 on an old machine that cost $125.

Councilman Raymond Dixon reported the old machine, purchased used several years ago, is beyond repair. It will be used for centerlining streets and painting of parking stalls.

Clerk-Treasurer Ray Hempstead, explaining the delay in opening the Sadie VanFossan Swimming Pool, said two leaks were found in the lines. He said these have been repaired and they plan to begin circulating the water again. If there are no further leaks, it is hoped to open the pool later this week. Cement walks around the pool are being installed today as several blocks had to be replaced due to breakage the past winter.

Hempstead also reported Council has about $3,539 in the general fund and that he hopes to receive the balance of first - half real estate taxes in July. He said he has paid firemen for first six months, which was $986, and ambulance trips cost the village $213.

Dixon said the street committee recommended 15-minute parking in front of the James Senanefes carry-out store on N. Beaver St. and the Ohio Bell substation. This will provide four 15 - minute parking spaces and he advised Senanefes that police will ticket any car parking over that time, even if it is his car or if his employes take advantage of this privilege.

Five members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, Norma Crook, Carol Longanecker, Donna Dawes, Clark Wolfe and Randy Vulcal, were present and heard Councilman Fred Steele report on the park committee's investigation into a summer youth center.

He said they found that an indoor center without air conditioning is not advisable as investigation shows that at previous indoor youth centers in hot weather, most of the youths were outside. He discussed other activities popular in summer.

He said Council would go along with a plan to permit dances again on the tennis courts of the swimming pool, but that there is no electricity or lights at the courts yet. He said they would have to get permission from neighbors and provide electricity as village funds are limited at present. He added Council will do all it can to help them with any out-door dancing at some location in the village.

Joe Gouldsberry requested that Council purchase a new water pump for the Public Square as the one they had was ruled out by the health department. He said if Council would pay for pump he would install it without cost. Mayor Dean Stockman advised him to obtain figures and report back to Council on cost of this project.

Ronald Todd, representing Motorola Radio, Inc., discussed new police radio equipment required by Oct. 31. The police committee met with the representative after Council session.

Councilman Clyde Pike asked the mayor to have the police enforce the laws on dogs, which have been running at large over the village.

Councilman Joseph Dornan asked Council to allow the Ohio Edison Co. to remove its light at the end of S. Market St. A new bridge is being constructed and the present light is too far from the project to do any good. Council authorized removal of the light until the bridge is completed.

Dixon mentioned deep holes in alleys in the village. Council has been discussing purchase of equipment to repair the alleys but feel the cost is too great for just one phase of the work.

Wendell Cole of the D-Mar Road Oil Co., inquired as to oiling the alleys and Council advised it wants to get them in shape before oiling.

Next meeting is July 8 at 7:30 p.m.

Arguments Continued In City Assault Charge

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted a continuance until Thursday morning in scheduled arguments by counsel in a motion filed by the defense in a case in which Jessie Floyd Kent, 730 Leonard St., is accused of assault with a deadly weapon.

Atty. George A. Aronson, the defense counsel, and Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark, prosecutor, were to have presented arguments today in the defendant's motion filed Friday, asking the court to quash the affidavit and suppress the evidence. The continuance was granted after Atty. Aronson explained he had to take his father, I. H. Aronson, to the Cleveland Clinic today.

Kent is accused of assault in connection with an incident June 1 in which Mrs. Emma Heft, 716 Leonard St., was stabbed in the hand with a knife.

Beaver Local Appoints Lancaster Aide Head Grid Coach

Jack Mills Named Head Basketball Coach At United

Edward H. Stevens, 28, an assistant coach at Lancaster High School last season, Monday was appointed head football coach at Beaver Local High School by the Board of Education.

It will be the first head coaching job for Stevens, who is no stranger to this area. A graduate of Mt. Union College in 1957, he has held assistant jobs in football, basketball and track at Springfield Local in Mahoning County and at Minerva.

—:—

HE SUCCEEDS Jack O'Rouke, who resigned last month to take a head coaching job at Plain City in the Columbus area.

At Lancaster, Stevens coached the ends and served under Jerry Wampfler, who led Lancaster to an 8-1-1 record, and was one of the top ranked teams in the state during the season.

The two starting ends for Lancaster were named to All - Ohio teams and both received scholarships to major colleges.

—:—

STEVENS also was an assistant coach in track at Lancaster.

Wherever Stevens has served he has been a member of a successful staff.

He launched his coaching career at his alma mater — Springfield Local — in 1957, serving until 1959 as an assistant in football, basketball and track. During his three years there, Springfield's football record was 11-6-1, with a 45-4 mark in basketball and the track team was runnerup to the state title in 1959.

—:—

HE WAS NAMED an assistant coach in football and basketball and head coach in track at Minerva High School in 1959. Minerva football teams showed a 21-7-1 record during his three year tenure while the basketball mark read, 44-17. Under Stevens, the track teams went undefeated in 1961 and 1962.

He accepted the coaching position at Lancaster in 1962, remaining one season there.

Former Springfield Local Athlete Is Selected

HIS PLAYING experience shows four years of high school football and three years of track at Springfield Local. In college, he played one year of football at Mt. Union but an injury sidelined him for the remaining three year

He was a member of the Mt. Union track team for two seasons and served as athletic trainer his junior and senior years.

—:—

STEVENS plans to use a wide open offense and he likes to pass. Lancaster scored 13 touchdowns through the air last season.

Dr. George Van Horne, executive head of the school district, in announcing Stevens appointment said he would also be head track coach and teach social studies or physical education.

Stevens is married to the former Joycelyn Cramer of Euclid and they have two children, a son, 6, and a daughter, 4.

A veteran coach, who resigned after winning seasons in basketball at Lisbon High School, has stepped back into the scholastic coaching picture.

Jack Mills, 45, who served 14 years at Lisbon High, was named head basketball coach and athleitc director at United Local at a special Board of Education meeting Monday night.

—:—

MILLS, who also operates an insurance agency, had been teaching in the United school system for three years.

At Lisbon, Mills showed an outstanding 14-year record of 165 wins and only 85 losses. His teams were noted for occasional upsets of larger schools in tournament play.

—:—

MILLS RESIGNED at Lisbon to coach an Air Defense Command team at Stewart Air Force Base in New York during the 1959-60 season. The team played predominantly a college schedule meeting teams from coast-to-coast.

He returned to the area in 1960 and took a teaching job at United.

Mills, who resides in the Guilford Lake area with his wife and three children, was highly regarded as a basketball player in high school, college and independent circles.

A GRADUATE of Youngstown South High School, he was an All-City center for two seasons.

He enrolled at Mt. Union College where he starred in basketball for three years and is one of very few basketball players ever to be named to the All-Ohio college team his sophomore year.

United, which competed as a Class A school last season, will move up to the Class AA ranks in the coming year.

Indians Put Together 4 Straight, Stop Orioles

Latman's Clutch Pitching, Home Run Spark Tribe

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Al Kaline is throwing off sparks as the superstar slugger for the Detroit Tigers, which hardly ranks as the surprise of the baseball season.

But the Tigers also are getting some batting fireworks from a less expected source—Jake Wood.

The Kaline-Wood combine spearheaded the offense behind rookie Bill Faul's tight pitching Monday night as the Tigers clipped the Boston Red Sox 6-1. Kaline belted a pair of homers, knocking in four runs, while the wiry Wood tripled and singled twice, stole a base and scored twice.

In other American League action—New York and Washington traded shutouts, the Yankees winning 7-0 on recently-promoted Al Downing's two-hitter before being trimmed 1-0 by left-hander Claude Osteen; Barry Latman's clutch pitching and home run enabled the Cleveland Indians to nip Baltimore's sagging Orioles 3-2; and the Los Angeles Angels bombed Kansas City 13-3 with 18 hits. Chicago's front-running White Sox and the Minnesota Twins were idle.

Downing, called up from the minors last week, posted his first big league victory in his two-hitter against the Senators. The 21-year-old southpaw, whose only other decision in the majors was a loss to Washington in 1961, struck out nine. Clete Boyer had three Yankee hits, including a homer, and Elston Howard hit a homer and double. Don Rudolph, 3-8, was the loser.

Osteen's victory was his first against four defeats.

Latman homered in the seventh inning for a 3-1 Cleveland lead over the Orioles, pitched out of a jam in the eighth, then had to be bailed out in the ninth.

With one out and two on in the Baltimore ninth, Boog Powell cracked a run-scoring double but pinch runner Bob Johnson was cut down at the plate trying to come in on the hit. Ted Abernathy relieved Latman at this point and preserved the Tribe's fourth straight victory.

Ed Sadowski, Felix Torres, Lee Thomas and Albie Pearson each had three hits for the Angels as they battered four Kansas City pitchers, starting with Orlando Pena. Sadowski's hits included a homer, and Leon Wagner rapped his 14th for Los Angeles.

Dan Osinski, 5-2, limited the Athletics to one hit over the first five innings and finished with a seven-hitter. Pena's record fell to 5-7.

Giants Stop Loop Leaders; Mets Dish Out Loss To Reds

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Orlando Cepeda slugged the San Francisco Giants out of a seven-game losing skid Monday night with a 430-foot homer in the eighth inning that snapped a tie and led to a 7-3 victory over the National League leading Los Angeles Dodgers.

Cepeda hit his game-winner off Dodger relief specialist Ron Perranoski leading off the eighth. The homer, Cepeda's 12th, to go with 40 runs batted in and a .308 average, broke a 3-3 tie and ended the Dodgers five-game winning streak.

The triumph moved the defending champion Giants, tied for third place with Chicago, to within one game of the front-running Dodgers with another clash to go in their two-game series. St. Louis, rained out at Pittsburgh, is in second place, now only .002 points behind Los Angeles.

Elsewhere, the Chicago Cubs edged Houston 3-2 on Ken Hubbs' run-scoring single in the ninth inning, the New York Mets downed Cincinnati 3-2 and Philadelphia defeated Milwaukee 6-2 in a game held to 5½ innings by rain.

Hubbs delivered his decisive hit following a single by Dick Bertell and a sacrifice. The run was the first earned off Colts' reliever Hal Woodeshick in 22 innings of relief work and tagged him with his second loss against five victories. Lindy McDaniel, who came on for Chicago in the eighth, won it for a 4-1 record. Billy Williams hit a homer for the Cubs and Howie Goss connected for Houston.

Tracy Stallard, 1-3, picked up his first victory since Sept. 3, 1961, by checking the Reds on seven hits and cutting off a ninth inning rally after Cincinnati had closed to within one run. Tim Harkness' seventh inning homer off Joey Jay, a 21-game winner last year, turned out to be the deciding run for the Mets and sent the Cincinnati right-hander down to his ninth defeat. He has won three.

Ray Culp, Philadelphia's 21-year-old bonus baby, won his eighth game by holding the Braves to four hits in the rain shortened game. One of the hits off Culp, 8-3, was a two-run homer by Ed Mathews. Mathews' error in left field helped the Phillies to two runs in the fourth inning and they wrapped it up with three more in the fifth. Bob Hendley, 4-4, was the loser.

Liston, Clay Agree To Meet In Title Go

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Herald said today that champion Sonny Liston and Cassius Clay have agreed to meet for the heavyweight boxing title at Philadelphia Sept. 30.

Columnist Bud Collins quoted Bob Nilon, brother of Liston's advisor from Philadelphia, Jack Nilon, as saying the bout has been agreed to and his brother is en route to London with an agreement for Clay to sign.

Nilon said the fight is contingent upon Liston beating Floyd Patterson in their return match at Las Vegas July 22, and upon Clay whipping Henry Cooper in London June 16.

Second Baseman Bobby Richardson of the Yankees took part in 116 double plays last season. He led the American League's second sackers.

Al Kaline is throwing off sparks as the superstar slugger for the Detroit Tigers, which hardly ranks as the surprise of the baseball season.

The Kaline-Wood combine spearheaded the offense behind rookie Bill Faul's tight pitching Monday night as the Tigers clipped the Boston Red Sox 6-1. Kaline belted a pair of homers, knocking in four runs, while the wiry Wood tripled and singled twice, stole a base and scored twice.

Chicago's front-running White Sox and the Minnesota Twins were idle.

Downing, called up from the minors last week, posted his first big league victory in his two-hitter against the Senators. Latman homered in the seventh inning for a 3-1 Cleveland lead over the Orioles, pitched out of a jam in the eighth, then had to be bailed out in the ninth.

With one out and two on in the Baltimore ninth, Boog Powell cracked a run-scoring double but pinch runner Bob Johnson was cut down at the plate trying to come in on the hit. Ted Abernathy relieved Latman at this point and preserved the Tribe's fourth straight victory.

Ed Sadowski, Felix Torres, Lee Thomas and Albie Pearson each had three hits for the Angels as they battered four Kansas City pitchers, starting with Orlando Pena. Sadowski's hits included a homer, and Leon Wagner rapped his 14th for Los Angeles.

Dan Osinski, 5-2, limited the Athletics to one hit over the first five innings and finished with a seven-hitter. Pena's record fell to 5-7.

Giants Stop Loop Leaders; Mets Dish Out Loss To Reds

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Orlando Cepeda slugged the San Francisco Giants out of a seven-game losing skid Monday night with a 430-foot homer in the eighth inning that snapped a tie and led to a 7-3 victory over the National League leading Los Angeles Dodgers.

Cepeda hit his game-winner off Dodger relief specialist Ron Perranoski leading off the eighth. The homer, Cepeda's 12th, to go with 40 runs batted in and a .308 average, broke a 3-3 tie and ended the Dodgers five-game winning streak.

The triumph moved the defending champion Giants, tied for third place with Chicago, to within one game of the front-running Dodgers with another clash to go in their two-game series. St. Louis, rained out at Pittsburgh, is in second place, now only .002 points behind Los Angeles.

Elsewhere, the Chicago Cubs edged Houston 3-2 on Ken Hubbs' run-scoring single in the ninth inning, the New York Mets downed Cincinnati 3-2 and Philadelphia defeated Milwaukee 6-2 in a game held to 5½ innings by rain.

Hubbs delivered his decisive hit following a single by Dick Bertell and a sacrifice. The run was the first earned off Colts' reliever Hal Woodeshick in 22 innings of relief work and tagged him with his second loss against five victories. Lindy McDaniel, who came on for Chicago in the eighth, won it for a 4-1 record. Billy Williams hit a homer for the Cubs and Howie Goss connected for Houston.

Tracy Stallard, 1-3, picked up his first victory since Sept. 3, 1961, by checking the Reds on seven hits and cutting off a ninth inning rally after Cincinnati had closed to within one run. Tim Harkness' seventh inning homer off Joey Jay, a 21-game winner last year, turned out to be the deciding run for the Mets and sent the Cincinnati right-hander down to his ninth defeat. He has won three.

Ray Culp, Philadelphia's 21-year-old bonus baby, won his eighth game by holding the Braves to four hits in the rain shortened game. One of the hits off Culp, 8-3, was a two-run homer by Ed Mathews. Mathews' error in left field helped the Phillies to two runs in the fourth inning and they wrapped it up with three more in the fifth. Bob Hendley, 4-4, was the loser.

Liston, Clay Agree To Meet In Title Go

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Herald said today that champion Sonny Liston and Cassius Clay have agreed to meet for the heavyweight boxing title at Philadelphia Sept. 30.

Columnist Bud Collins quoted Bob Nilon, brother of Liston's advisor from Philadelphia, Jack Nilon, as saying the bout has been agreed to and his brother is en route to London with an agreement for Clay to sign.

Nilon said the fight is contingent upon Liston beating Floyd Patterson in their return match at Las Vegas July 22, and upon Clay whipping Henry Cooper in London June 16.

Second Baseman Bobby Richardson of the Yankees took part in 116 double plays last season. He led the American League's second sackers.

Boys May Still Register For Summer Cage League

With the deadline for launching the YMCA Summer Basketball program on the First National Bank Auto Drive In Lot scheduled for June 17th, nearly 200 youngsters have registered for the three leagues being scheduled. Some boys who would like to enroll, are unable to do so for the opening round, due to their commitment in one of the city's baseball leagues.

Officials of the program will set-up the teams in each of the three divisions in order that players may know in ample time the team they are with as well as the time of play.

Three divisions will be operated for the first round, with the High School division expected to have the largest number of teams playing. Division I is for the 6th and 7th Graders, division 2 for the 8th and 9th graders while division 3 is for the High School players. Games will be sandwiched.

In a preview of play, held last Thursday some 50 boys participated. Two Supervisors will be hired to operate the league, and to see that all boys registered will have an opportunity to play.

Blanks are in the hands of school coaches, and may also be secured from the YMCA, Jack Green of Smith & Phillips, Don Burbick at Burbick's, Colin Neal at the First National Bank and Dick Forzano at the Travelers Hotel.

This is a non-profit program designed to provide additional basketball experience for our boys, with the ultimate aim being to raise the calibre of basketball in this area.

Boys who are interested in participating in either of the three Leagues are urged to secure a blank, get it filled out and turn it in at the YMCA not later than Wednesday afternoon.

It is hoped that present high school players and former basketball players, who are interested in working with boys, will volunteer to coach one of the teams.

Missouri, Texas Show Strong Staff In NCAA

OMAHA (AP)—Texas and Missouri are deepest in the good pitching necessary for a week-long tournament grind but the luck of the draw brings them together tonight in the second round of the college World Series.

The two frequent entries in the NCAA baseball tournament scored the most impressive first round victories Monday. And it was solid pitching that sent them into the winner's bracket with Arizona and Florida State.

Bob Myer, a fire-balling junior, hurled a 5-hit 8-3 victory for Texas over 1961 champion Southern California and struck out 11.

Unbeaten Keith Weber pitched a 6-hitter as Missouri edged Holy Cross 3-0.

Both Missouri and Texas have more strong pitchers ready to keep going hot in the double-elimination tourney.

The Longhorns, in their third straight college World Series, will send Charley Hartenstein (6-2), who has had the experience in the tournament last year, against Missouri. The Tigers' unbeaten sophomore sensation Jack Stroud (5-0) will oppose him.

Arizona also received some good pitching from Sherwin Scott, who celebrated his 21st birthday Monday with a 6-hit 8-1 triumph over Penn State.

Florida State, with a shaky pitching staff, turned two Western Michigan errors into three unearned runs in the ninth inning for a 5-2 victory.

Arizona will play Florida State tonight before the Texas-Missouri game.

New York State has a law which prohibits children under 14 years of age from attending boxing bouts.

Potters, which came up with a four-run fifth inning, scored an 8-6 win over T.S.&T. with Smith collecting three hits and Frederick receiving the pitching victory. Means homered for the losers.

Billy Lyons limited Pusateri's to two hits and fanned eight batters as Rogers Drive-In picked up a 5-2 decision. Mike Lockhart and Dutch Wright blasted doubles for the winners.

Two County Men Record Holes-In-One

Two Columbiana County golfers found the mark for holes-in-one over the weekend.

Bob Firestone of New Middleton, who is co-holder of the course record at the East Palestine Country Club in Negley, recorded an ace on the 165-yard No. 2 hole there Sunday.

The ace was Firestone's fourth and he played in a fivesome of Bert Jack, Martin Sheerer, Charles Norman and Bob Wolfe. Firestone wound up with a 34 and his course record also held by five others is 30. He used a No. 7 iron for his ace.

At Copeland Hills, Marvin Lunde of Columbiana scored a hole-in-one on the 155-yard No. 9 hole. The ace was only the second in three years at the Columbiana course.

Lunde was playing golf with Doug Mann also of Columbiana.

The Copeland Club announced that women's league meets each Wednesday morning at 9 and any women interested should contact the club.

Rohrer Fires Eagle Two At Country Club

In Sunday's best ball medal play E. B. Rohrer and J. T. Hall walked away with honors by totaling 59.

Rohrer helped the twosome by sinking a full No. 7 iron shot for an eagle 2 on the ninth hole which measures 402 yards.

Seconds were J. M. Koos and R. J. Clark with 64, Bruce Burbick and C. F. Metz Jr. 65 and W. A Harris and Bill Mayers 65.

The Hall Memorial qualifying will end June 16 and the Ladies July Cup qualifying is now in play through June 19.

Children will receive another golf clinic Saturday at 10 a. m.

Wolfe Fires 1-Hitter In Softball League

Bill Wolfe Jr., who owned a no-hitter for six innings, wound up allowing one safety in First Free Methodist's 5-1 victory over Glenmoor U. P. Monday in the Y Church Softball League.

Dave Curtis with three hits including a home run paced the winner while Tom Wolfe and Harry Cunningham homered.

Burkhart Stops Realtors On 1 Hit In Lawyers Win

Righthander Bob Burkhart was near perfect and rightfielder Bill Smith came up with the clutch hit for the Lawyers to produce a 2-1 victory over the Realtors.

The victory pushed the Lawyers into a big lead while the Realtors remain in a tie for second place.

Burkhart pitched a one hitter giving up a single to Mike Snowden. It was Smith's double in the last of the sixth inning that drove Len Walker home with the eventual winning run. Scott also smacked a double and single for the winners.

The Lawyers scored first in the second inning and again in the sixth with the Realtors coming up with their lone run in the seventh inning.

Hissam was the losing pitcher and gave up four hits.

Finsterwald Has 9 Under In Qualifier

CINCINNATI (AP) — If Dow Finsterwald keeps up the pace he set in the sectional qualifiers he should not have much trouble winning the U.S. National Open golf tournament.

Finsterwald, the former PGA champion from Athens, Ohio, toured the 71-par, 6,258-yard Clovernook Country Club course Monday in 69-64—133, nine strokes under par.

Clovernook officials said his round of 64 set a club record.

The qualifier provided seven entrants—two of them amateurs—with credentials for the tournament June 20-22 at Brookline Country Club near Boston. Thirty-one golfers participated.

An unheralded amateur Stephan Wilkinson of Richmond, Ind., was second with a 67-70—137. Three golfers tied for third with 139 each—amateur Bob Magee of Fort Campbell, Ky., and pros Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, and Gene Thompson of Bluefield, W. Va.

Pro Art Doering of Columbus, Ohio, was sixth with 140 and Don Essig III, a pro from Indianapolis, won a three-way playoff for the seventh berth.

Harrisville Wins West Virginia's Baseball Crown

PARKERSBURG, W. Va. (AP) — Harrisville's Gators scrambled for five runs in the first inning and coasted to an 8-3 victory over Marsh Fork to win the State High School Championship Monday.

Harrisville starter Jim Carpenter went all the way, allowing nine hits, two walks and striking out two batters.

The first-frame rally started after one out. The Gators cracked four singles by Charles Carpenter, Jim Carpenter, Tony Tanzey and Ron Haught. Haught's single brought in Charles Carpenter for the first run.

Marsh Fork hurler Jim Clay then walked a man to force in the second run, a sacrifice bunt brought in another, and Bill Mossor singled to drive in two more.

Clay came to bat in the bottom of the first and slammed a home run with no one on. Ken Scarbro replaced Clay on the mound in the second inning, but Harrisville's foothold was too strong to overcome.

Louis Aparicio of the Baltimore Orioles has led the American League seven times in most stolen bases.

Snead, Other Stars Seek Spots In Open

By The Associated Press

Ol' Samuel Jackson Snead, a member of everybody's top 10 in the history of professional golf, is just one among 355 mortals faced with the do-or-else job today of trying to win a place in the U.S. Open Golf Championship.

Slammin' Sam, just turned 51, and many other top names in the game will play 36 holes at seven locations across the nation for the last 99 berths in the 63rd Open championship to be played this year at The Country Club, Brookline, Mass., June 20-22.

Thirty berths in the annual tournament that Snead, with all his greatness, has never won, were filled Monday in second-stage qualifying competition at Chicago, Cincinnati, Kansas City, Washington, Denver and Portland, Ore. The 99 today will close the list for the 150-man Brookline lineup. The other 21 places went to automatic qualifiers for recent achievements, including defending champion Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, and red-hot Tony Lema.

McMahon Interviewed By Owner Of Royals

CINCINNATI (AP)—Both Jack McMahon and Warren Hensel issued cautious statements after the former National Basketball Association coach conferred Monday with the businessman who is trying to buy the Cincinnati Royals basketball team.

"I wanted to get his views and explain mine," Hensel said. "This was the extent of it. We didn't go into anything definite at all.

Hensel said that he plans to interview more candidates before hiring a successor to Charley Wolf.

McMahon said he would like to return to coaching. The 34-year-old former St. John's University star coached the Chicago Zephyrs part of last season.

Boys May Still Register For Summer Cage League

With the deadline for launching the YMCA Summer Basketball program on the First National Bank Auto Drive In Lot scheduled for June 17th, nearly 200 youngsters have registered for the three leagues being scheduled. Some boys who would like to enroll, are unable to do so for the opening round, due to their commitment in one of the city's baseball leagues.

Officials of the program will set-up the teams in each of the three divisions in order that players may know in ample time the team they are with as well as the time of play.

Three divisions will be operated for the first round, with the High School division expected to have the largest number of teams playing. Division I is for the 6th and 7th Graders, division 2 for the 8th and 9th graders while division 3 is for the High School players. Games will be sandwiched.

In a preview of play, held last Thursday some 50 boys participated. Two Supervisors will be hired to operate the league, and to see that all boys registered will have an opportunity to play.

Blanks are in the hands of school coaches, and may also be secured from the YMCA, Jack Green of Smith & Phillips, Don Burbick at Burbick's, Colin Neal at the First National Bank and Dick Forzano at the Travelers Hotel.

This is a non-profit program designed to provide additional basketball experience for our boys, with the ultimate aim being to raise the calibre of basketball in this area.

Boys who are interested in participating in either of the three Leagues are urged to secure a blank, get it filled out and turn it in at the YMCA not later than Wednesday afternoon.

It is hoped that present high school players and former basketball players, who are interested in working with boys, will volunteer to coach one of the teams.

Rogers Nine, Potters Gain Minor Wins

Victories were turned in by Potters Savings & Loan and Rogers Drive-In Monday in the Minor League.

Potters, which came up with a four-run fifth inning, scored an 8-6 win over T.S.&T. with Smith collecting three hits and Frederick receiving the pitching victory. Means homered for the losers.

Billy Lyons limited Pusateri's to two hits and fanned eight batters as Rogers Drive-In picked up a 5-2 decision. Mike Lockhart and Dutch Wright blasted doubles for the winners.

Two County Men Record Holes-In-One

Two Columbiana County golfers found the mark for holes-in-one over the weekend.

Bob Firestone of New Middleton, who is co-holder of the course record at the East Palestine Country Club in Negley, recorded an ace on the 165-yard No. 2 hole there Sunday.

The ace was Firestone's fourth and he played in a fivesome of Bert Jack, Martin Sheerer, Charles Norman and Bob Wolfe. Firestone wound up with a 34 and his course record also held by five others is 30. He used a No. 7 iron for his ace.

At Copeland Hills, Marvin Lunde of Columbiana scored a hole-in-one on the 155-yard No. 9 hole. The ace was only the second in three years at the Columbiana course.

Lunde was playing golf with Doug Mann also of Columbiana.

The Copeland Club announced that women's league meets each Wednesday morning at 9 and any women interested should contact the club.

Burkhart Stops Realtors On 1 Hit In Lawyers Win

Righthander Bob Burkhart was near perfect and rightfielder Bill Smith came up with the clutch hit for the Lawyers to produce a 2-1 victory over the Realtors.

The victory pushed the Lawyers into a big lead while the Realtors remain in a tie for second place.

Burkhart pitched a one hitter giving up a single to Mike Snowden. It was Smith's double in the last of the sixth inning that drove Len Walker home with the eventual winning run. Scott also smacked a double and single for the winners.

The Lawyers scored first in the second inning and again in the sixth with the Realtors coming up with their lone run in the seventh inning.

Hissam was the losing pitcher and gave up four hits.

Missouri, Texas Show Strong Staff In NCAA

OMAHA (AP)—Texas and Missouri are deepest in the good pitching necessary for a week-long tournament grind but the luck of the draw brings them together tonight in the second round of the college World Series.

The two frequent entries in the NCAA baseball tournament scored the most impressive first round victories Monday. And it was solid pitching that sent them into the winner's bracket with Arizona and Florida State.

Bob Myer, a fire-balling junior, hurled a 5-hit 8-3 victory for Texas over 1961 champion Southern California and struck out 11.

Unbeaten Keith Weber pitched a 6-hitter as Missouri edged Holy Cross 3-0.

Both Missouri and Texas have more strong pitchers ready to keep going hot in the double-elimination tourney.

The Longhorns, in their third straight college World Series, will send Charley Hartenstein (6-2), who has had the experience in the tournament last year, against Missouri. The Tigers' unbeaten sophomore sensation Jack Stroud (5-0) will oppose him.

Arizona also received some good pitching from Sherwin Scott, who celebrated his 21st birthday Monday with a 6-hit 8-1 triumph over Penn State.

Florida State, with a shaky pitching staff, turned two Western Michigan errors into three unearned runs in the ninth inning for a 5-2 victory.

Arizona will play Florida State tonight before the Texas-Missouri game.

New York State has a law which prohibits children under 14 years of age from attending boxing bouts.

Rohrer Fires Eagle Two At Country Club

In Sunday's best ball medal play E. B. Rohrer and J. T. Hall walked away with honors by totaling 59.

Rohrer helped the twosome by sinking a full No. 7 iron shot for an eagle 2 on the ninth hole which measures 402 yards.

Seconds were J. M. Koos and R. J. Clark with 64, Bruce Burbick and C. F. Metz Jr. 65 and W. A Harris and Bill Mayers 65.

The Hall Memorial qualifying will end June 16 and the Ladies July Cup qualifying is now in play through June 19.

Children will receive another golf clinic Saturday at 10 a. m.

Wolfe Fires 1-Hitter In Softball League

Bill Wolfe Jr., who owned a no-hitter for six innings, wound up allowing one safety in First Free Methodist's 5-1 victory over Glenmoor U. P. Monday in the Y Church Softball League.

Dave Curtis with three hits including a home run paced the winner while Tom Wolfe and Harry Cunningham homered.

Finsterwald Has 9 Under In Qualifier

CINCINNATI (AP) — If Dow Finsterwald keeps up the pace he set in the sectional qualifiers he should not have much trouble winning the U.S. National Open golf tournament.

Finsterwald, the former PGA champion from Athens, Ohio, toured the 71-par, 6,258-yard Clovernook Country Club course Monday in 69-64—133, nine strokes under par.

Clovernook officials said his round of 64 set a club record.

The qualifier provided seven entrants—two of them amateurs—with credentials for the tournament June 20-22 at Brookline Country Club near Boston. Thirty-one golfers participated.

An unheralded amateur Stephan Wilkinson of Richmond, Ind., was second with a 67-70—137. Three golfers tied for third with 139 each—amateur Bob Magee of Fort Campbell, Ky., and pros Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, and Gene Thompson of Bluefield, W. Va.

Pro Art Doering of Columbus, Ohio, was sixth with 140 and Don Essig III, a pro from Indianapolis, won a three-way playoff for the seventh berth.

Harrisville Wins West Virginia's Baseball Crown

PARKERSBURG, W. Va. (AP) — Harrisville's Gators scrambled for five runs in the first inning and coasted to an 8-3 victory over Marsh Fork to win the State High School Championship Monday.

Harrisville starter Jim Carpenter went all the way, allowing nine hits, two walks and striking out two batters.

The first-frame rally started after one out. The Gators cracked four singles by Charles Carpenter, Jim Carpenter, Tony Tanzey and Ron Haught. Haught's single brought in Charles Carpenter for the first run.

Marsh Fork hurler Jim Clay then walked a man to force in the second run, a sacrifice bunt brought in another, and Bill Mossor singled to drive in two more.

Clay came to bat in the bottom of the first and slammed a home run with no one on. Ken Scarbro replaced Clay on the mound in the second inning, but Harrisville's foothold was too strong to overcome.

Louis Aparicio of the Baltimore Orioles has led the American League seven times in most stolen bases.

Snead, Other Stars Seek Spots In Open

By The Associated Press

Ol' Samuel Jackson Snead, a member of everybody's top 10 in the history of professional golf, is just one among 355 mortals faced with the do-or-else job today of trying to win a place in the U.S. Open Golf Championship.

Slammin' Sam, just turned 51, and many other top names in the game will play 36 holes at seven locations across the nation for the last 99 berths in the 63rd Open championship to be played this year at The Country Club, Brookline, Mass., June 20-22.

Thirty berths in the annual tournament that Snead, with all his greatness, has never won, were filled Monday in second-stage qualifying competition at Chicago, Cincinnati, Kansas City, Washington, Denver and Portland, Ore. The 99 today will close the list for the 150-man Brookline lineup. The other 21 places went to automatic qualifiers for recent achievements, including defending champion Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, and red-hot Tony Lema.

McMahon Interviewed By Owner Of Royals

CINCINNATI (AP)—Both Jack McMahon and Warren Hensel issued cautious statements after the former National Basketball Association coach conferred Monday with the businessman who is trying to buy the Cincinnati Royals basketball team.

"I wanted to get his views and explain mine," Hensel said. "This was the extent of it. We didn't go into anything definite at all.

Hensel said that he plans to interview more candidates before hiring a successor to Charley Wolf.

McMahon said he would like to return to coaching. The 34-year-old former St. John's University star coached the Chicago Zephyrs part of last season.

Ashcroft Whiffs 13 In Georgetown's Win

Ashcroft fanned 13 batters and allowed only one hit in pitching Georgetown to a 2-1 victory over Hookstown in the South Side Senior League Saturday at Hookstown.

Luther got the only hit off Ashcroft. Rogers had two hits for the winners. Wright was the losing pitcher. Georgetown showed two runs on three hits. Both teams played errorless ball.

Schell Hurls 2-Hitter In Milliron Win

Marv Schell fanned 10 batters and allowed only two hits in pitching Millirons to a 14-1 victory over Veteran Plate Glass Monday in the Little League.

In a National Division game, Burbick's edged the Medics, 7-6.

Millirons came up with an eight-hit attack with Kim Kemple collecting two singles and Dan Cunningham blasting a double and single.

Burbick's came from behind with a three run rally in the fourth inning then received some fine relief pitching from Cornell who made a fine play when he speared a line drive on the mound.

Lowery received credit for the victory. Pacing Burbick's 10 - hit attack was Johnson with two doubles and a single, Berhar a home run and single and Lowery who had two singles.

Madish and Chambers had two hits each for the Medics.

Stanton Boosters Will Meet Tonight

No games will be played Wednesday but Thursday Woodbine will meet Bright's at Thompson Park with Litten's and Burbick's clashing at Dopler Field.

Friday's game show Burbick's and Woodbine at Thompson and Bright's and Golden Star at Dopler.

A meeting of manager, coaches, umpires and league officials will be held Wednesday at 7 p. m. at the Travelers Hotel.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

On this date in 1776, the Continental Congress appointed a committee to draft a declaration of independence from Britain. On the committee were Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, Roger Sherman and Robert Livingston.

On this date:

In 1859, prospectors in Six-Mile Canyon in Nevada discovered the fabulous Comstock Lode. Nearby Virginia City was born and in the next 20 years more than $500 million dollars in silver and gold were taken from the area.

In 1861, a convention met at Wheeling to form the new state of West Virginia.

In 1942, announcement was made of a lend-lease agreement with Russia.

In 1943, President Roosevelt appealed to the Italian people to get rid of Mussolini and pull out of the war.

In 1945, the Senate voted to continue wartime price controls for another year, but with some modifications.

Ten years ago: Truce team disputes in Panmunjom drafted the last details preliminary to the signing of an armistice in Korea.

Five years ago: British Prime Minister Macmillan left Washington for conferences with Canadian officials in Ottawa before returning to England.

One year ago: President Kennedy, in a speech at the Yale University commencement, attacked what he called "myths" created by those opposed to federal deficits and the rising public debt.

By 1980 it is estimated the population of the United States will rise to 250 million from approximately 188 million this year.

Gallaudet College, Washington, D.C., is the only college for the deaf in the world. It was founded in 1864 and has an enrollment of 600.

Junior Editors Quiz on COINS

QUESTION: Why are the edges of coins raised and ridged?

ANSWER: About 700 B. C. the ancient Greeks began to use coins as a medium of exchange. (A) is one of these first coins, made of a mixture of silver and gold. Soon the Greeks began to make very artistic designs on their coins, as in (B). As more were made and used, it became natural to stack them up in piles for easy handling, which we see our young friend doing. The first coins, however, which often had raised designs, would slip and slide around when they were stacked. Coin (B) shows the answer to this: there is a little raised edge all around and this makes it possible to pile a stack of coins very neatly; it also prevents wear to the raised parts of the coins. You must remember the Greeks were a very advanced people.

Coin (B) also shows the ridged edges, such as our dimes and other silver coins have today, which we call "milled" edges. Dishonest people used to scrape some of the silver or gold from the edge of a coin and keep the scrapings, while using the coin as well. The milled edge makes it easier to find out if this illegal practice is going on and track down the people who are doing it.

FOR YOU TO DO: Coin collecting is a wonderful hobby. We illustrate the first U. S. coin ever issued (C). You may be able to spot coins in ordinary change which have more than their face value. Get a coin catalogue to find out which ones to look for.

★ ★ ★

Today In History

By The Associated Press

On this date in 1776, the Continental Congress appointed a committee to draft a declaration of independence from Britain. On the committee were Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, Roger Sherman and Robert Livingston.

On this date:

In 1859, prospectors in Six-Mile Canyon in Nevada discovered the fabulous Comstock Lode. Nearby Virginia City was born and in the next 20 years more than $500 million dollars in silver and gold were taken from the area.

In 1861, a convention met at Wheeling to form the new state of West Virginia.

In 1942, announcement was made of a lend-lease agreement with Russia.

In 1943, President Roosevelt appealed to the Italian people to get rid of Mussolini and pull out of the war.

In 1945, the Senate voted to continue wartime price controls for another year, but with some modifications.

Ten years ago: Truce team disputes in Panmunjom drafted the last details preliminary to the signing of an armistice in Korea.

Five years ago: British Prime Minister Macmillan left Washington for conferences with Canadian officials in Ottawa before returning to England.

One year ago: President Kennedy, in a speech at the Yale University commencement, attacked what he called "myths" created by those opposed to federal deficits and the rising public debt.

By 1980 it is estimated the population of the United States will rise to 250 million from approximately 188 million this year.

Gallaudet College, Washington, D.C., is the only college for the deaf in the world. It was founded in 1864 and has an enrollment of 600.

Junior Editors Quiz on COINS

QUESTION: Why are the edges of coins raised and ridged?

ANSWER: About 700 B. C. the ancient Greeks began to use coins as a medium of exchange. (A) is one of these first coins, made of a mixture of silver and gold. Soon the Greeks began to make very artistic designs on their coins, as in (B). As more were made and used, it became natural to stack them up in piles for easy handling, which we see our young friend doing. The first coins, however, which often had raised designs, would slip and slide around when they were stacked. Coin (B) shows the answer to this: there is a little raised edge all around and this makes it possible to pile a stack of coins very neatly; it also prevents wear to the raised parts of the coins. You must remember the Greeks were a very advanced people.

Coin (B) also shows the ridged edges, such as our dimes and other silver coins have today, which we call "milled" edges. Dishonest people used to scrape some of the silver or gold from the edge of a coin and keep the scrapings, while using the coin as well. The milled edge makes it easier to find out if this illegal practice is going on and track down the people who are doing it.

FOR YOU TO DO: Coin collecting is a wonderful hobby. We illustrate the first U. S. coin ever issued (C). You may be able to spot coins in ordinary change which have more than their face value. Get a coin catalogue to find out which ones to look for.
